

Enough by Ruth Mella Inspired by Dayenu a Hebrew Song

Most Holy God, maker of heaven and earth, so bountiful is your steadfast love, that just a little of your glory is more than enough.

If you didn't choose me at 22 years old but at 32

it would have been enough

If you had just blessed me with a voice to worship praise songs to you

it would have been enough

If you haven't blessed me with 4 talents but only 1 talent

it would have been enough

If you hadn't given me a Spirit of happiness but just of joy

it would have been enough

If you hadn't delivered me from the cell of the world but met me in the cell

it would have been enough

If you had just kept me with a broken-heart to learn how to rely on you

it would have been enough

If you hadn't allowed me to make it far in age but I still knew you

But as it is, most gracious God, you have more than abundantly lavished your goodness upon us. In Christ Jesus you revealed the fullness of your love. His whole life, death, and resurrection testify to the depth of your compassion. Therefore, we bless you, we thank you, we praise you, for you alone are worthy of our worship. Your faithfulness goes beyond the glory I want to show to you. To you and to the Christ and to the Holy Spirit be all glory, honor, and dominion, now and forevermore. Amen
