

Jesus Love By Ruth Mella

In the gentle glow of a forgiving light,
Jesus' love, a beacon, pure and bright.
Unconditional grace, a river that flows,
Embracing the broken, mending the throes.

A love that walked the dusty, humble earth,
Healing wounds, imparting rebirth.
With compassion deeper than the deepest sea,
Jesus' love, a boundless, sacred decree.

On the cross, a symbol of selfless surrender,
Love's sacrifice, profound and tender.
Forgiveness offered in each whispered prayer,
Jesus' love, an eternal love affair.

A shepherd's heart, guiding lost souls,
Through valleys low, toward heavenly goals.
In the embrace of Christ's love divine,
Hope blossoms, and grace continues to shine.
