WEDDINGS at Park Hill Barn

Park Hill Barn at the Pendle Heritage Centre in Barrowford offers a stunning, rustic setting for weddings, blending historical charm with modern elegance. Couples can hold their ceremonies in the atmospheric Cruck Barn (March to 31st October), which features ancient timber beams and a cozy ambiance, or within Park Hill Barn itself, which boasts a more contemporary rustic style. The venue provides a beautiful backdrop for both intimate ceremonies and larger celebrations, surrounded by the serene Pendle countryside.

The Cruck Barn at Pendle Heritage Centre offers a unique and intimate setting for weddings, available from March to October due to the absence of central heating. This historic barn is licensed to host up to 80 guests, including the bride, groom, and suppliers, making it ideal for smaller ceremonies. In contrast, Park Hill Barn can host weddings year-round and accommodate up to 120 guests, offering a more spacious option for larger celebrations. Both venues provide beautiful, rustic settings for memorable wedding ceremonies.

When booking your wedding with us, your first point of call must be your local registry office to confirm they can marry you on your preferred date and time.

CEREMONY ROOMS

A ceremony set up in Park Hill Barn can hold up to 120 guests across both floors

A ceremony set up in The Cruck Barn can be held March to October for up to 80 guests

The Cruck Barn at Pendle Heritage Centre is a charming venue for weddings, available from March to October due to the lack of central heating. It's perfect for smaller, intimate ceremonies, licensed for up to 80 guests, including the bride, groom, and suppliers. For those seeking a year-round option with a larger capacity, Park Hill Barn can host weddings throughout the year and accommodate up to 120 guests. Both spaces offer a beautiful, rustic atmosphere ideal for creating unforgettable memories.

The Cruck Barn is available as a dry hire venue, meaning you have the flexibility to bring in your own suppliers and decor. Included in the hire are elegant white Chiavari chairs, adding a touch of sophistication to your ceremony. However, both the Cruck Barn and Park Hill Barn require additional dressing to create the perfect wedding ambiance. For inspiration and options, please visit our "Decor and Extras" page to explore how you can personalise the space to match your vision.

HOW THE CEREMONY WORKS

When holding a ceremony at Pendle Heritage Centre, if you're getting married in the Cruck Barn, guests and the groom will arrive about an hour before the bride. They'll be directed to the barn while the bride arrives or the guests can have drinks in the bar area of Park Hill Barn however no drinks can be taken up to the cruck barn. The registrars will interview the couple separately in the drawing rooms before the ceremony. Afterwards, the bride makes her entrance, guided by the team, and the ceremony begins. Following this, guests can gather for confetti and photos, followed by a drinks reception on the front lawn or in Park Hill Barn, depending on the weather.

If your ceremony is in Park Hill Barn, a similar process occurs, with the registrars using the Pigeon Loft office for interviews. The team will assist throughout the process, ensuring everything runs smoothly.

Did you know we also cater for celebrant ceremonies?

At our stunning location, we offer the opportunity to enhance your celebration with a personalized celebrant ceremony. Whether you're marking a wedding, vow renewal, commitment ceremony, or another significant life event, a celebrant can craft a ceremony that reflects your unique story and values.

What is a Celebrant Ceremony?

A celebrant ceremony is a bespoke ritual designed to honor and celebrate important moments in your life. Unlike traditional ceremonies conducted by religious figures or officiants, celebrants offer a personalized approach. They work closely with you to create a ceremony that truly represents who you are as a couple or individual, incorporating elements that are meaningful to you and your guests. You can also choose the time of your ceremony to your liking, providing your celebrant is available of course!

Your local civic ceremony registration office is – Burnley (Lancashire country council)
