Alcohol Alert
Come to the Capitol to Lobby

April is Alcohol Awareness Month

ILCAAAP has a display at the State Capitol on Thursday, April 27, and we invite you to come and lobby Legislators.

Legislators are being lobbied heavily by alcohol and marijuana interests. They need to see and hear from those who oppose making alcohol and others drugs more accessible, especially to youth.

Come to the Capitol to Lobby
Thursday, April 27 10:00 to Noon

Meet at ILCAAAP's display table on the North Side of the Capitol. There will be a short workshop at 10:00 a.m. on How to Lobby. Packets and/or talking points on key legislation will be distributed for you to share with Legislators. Extra packets will be available for those who arrive later.

Alcohol Legislation:

Underage sale of alcohol at restaurants if accompanied by parents, grandparents, step parents, and legal guardians (HB 494).
Sale of alcohol near schools and churches in Chicago

Legalization of Marijuana

Please e-mail ILCAAAP to let us know you can come or for additional information.
