Gambling Action Alert - October 15, 2021

IL Gaming Board delays decision eliminating one south suburban casino contender

Following a closed-door session, Marcus Fruchter, the gaming board's administrator, said that decision could come up for a vote at the board's Oct. 20 meeting.

Fruchter said the gaming board remains on pace to grant the license to one of the four applicants by early January. Read more

Municipal League urging Senate to pass SB 521

The Illinois Municipal League said it supports one of the provisions included in the bill; a component that raises the annual cap on video gaming terminal fees for non-home rule communities. Read

NOTE: SB 521 expands sports gambling by allowing betting on ALL Illinois college sports and allows sports gambling licenses for another, smaller venue (Chicago Sky).

SB 521 allows nationally recognized veterans and fraternal organizations to apply for a video gambling license without having a liquor license. These organizations could operate video gambling in “dry” communities that do not allow the sale of alcohol and in cities or counties that “opted out” of video gambling. Chicago and Cook County are exempt.

Limits to $250 the amount a home rule municipality can charge per video gambling machine. Municipalities could not charge a “push-tax” on video gambling.
