

Predator Conservation Alliance Annual Conference!

Mammoth Hot Springs Hotel, Yellowstone National Park
October 2-5, 2003

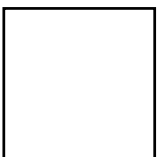

Join us this fall for three days of wildlife-focused events in Yellowstone National Park at Predator Conservation Alliance's Fourth Annual Conference!

The focus of the conference will be wildlife restoration, an important and timely theme. Speakers and expert-led field trips will explore the world of wildlife restoration issues—from individual animal projects to community-based economic benefits, and even the restorative value of nature to people!

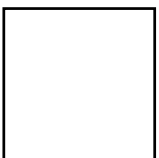

Featured speakers include:

Mike Phillips, former National Park Service project leader of wolf restoration in Yellowstone, now with the Turner Endangered Species Fund.

Rick Bass, noted Montana author and conservationist. Rick's books include The Ninemile Wolves and The Lost Grizzlies. Rick will discuss the cultural and spiritual aspects of wildlife restoration.

Ray Rasker, director of Socio-Economics for the Sonoran Institute, and author on public land management and wildlife economics.

Don Barry, former Department of Interior Assistant Secretary, now with the Wilderness Society. Don is an Endangered Species Act expert and will discuss the politics of wildlife restoration.

Other topics:

- ◆ What Success Looks Like:
Wolves in Northern Rockies
- ◆ Roads Less Traveled:
Re-wilding Forest Roads
- ◆ Why Do Y:
The Yellowstone to Yukon Conservation Vision
- ◆ (Back) Home on the Range:
Returning Bison to the Northern Plains
- ◆ Habitat: Where It's at for Prairie Dogs
- ◆ Restore It and They will Come:
The Northern Plains Conservation Network

Also fun expert-led field trips and wildlife viewing, kick-off social, dinner banquet, breakfasts and lunches!

Attendees may register for the conference by calling (406) 587-3389 or by visiting www.predatorconservation.org.
$60 registration fee includes entry to all presentations and field trips ($30 rate for students and SEJ members).
Food and lodging arranged for additional cost.

