Dear Addressee:

We have received your Notice of Claim for your property located at:
2286-2294 ANCHORAGE LN
NAPLES, FL 341040000

Your claim has been assigned to Administrative Strategies, LLC to determine the amount of damages covered by your policy and to help you present your claim. Your flood policy article VII.J.4 requires you to sign and submit a Proof of Loss to Hartford Fire Insurance Company within sixty (60) days of the loss or within any extended timeframe granted by the Federal Insurance Administrator. Your adjuster can provide you with this document as well as help you complete it.

If safe to do so, you may begin the process of cleaning; however, please do not discard any damaged property - especially major items - prior to the adjuster's inspection unless it poses a health or safety hazard and unless you first photograph the item and copy the model and serial number from the item. Examples of major items are carpeting, appliances and furniture.

Our records show your mortgage company (ies) is (are):

N/A

If a building check can be issued, that check will be payable to both you and your mortgage company (ies). If your mortgage company (ies) on file is incorrect, please promptly provide your agent and claims adjuster with updated information to avoid any delays in the process.

We know a flood event is a stressful time and would like to help you through the claim process as much as possible. If you have any questions regarding your claim, please call us at 800-787-5677.

Sincerely,

Hartford Fire Insurance Company
