

Video 2 Mark L

Video 2 Questions

1. How did Shakespeare define “comedy?”
2. According to Mark, no one gets hurt in his audience unless they?
3. According to Mark, what is the only argument he wins with his wife?
4. What you give energy to will what?
5. When we stay inside our own minds, what does Mark say it is like?
6. Mark says, “I am not afraid of what you think...” What is he afraid of?
7. Recovery is the distance between first thought wrong and what?
8. Mark has been clean 23 years. What has this helped him to learn?
9. A cop pulled Mark over. What did Mark say about this cop that he described as a “gift from god as a comedian?”
10. How does Mark describe his mother?
11. What did Mark’s mother call her happy place?
12. Mark says he and his wife have been together for 10 years. How many years were they married?
13. What was Mark’s wife’s drug of choice?
14. Mark says he is selective about which one, his memory or his courage?
15. What was the argument Mark had with his wife about?
16. What technique does Mark utilize in this situation to not engage in the argument and think about it?
17. What does Mark tell his son is rule number 1 whenever he and his wife argue?
18. According to Mark, an in argument, volume of voice is not a substitute for what?
19. According to Mark, every time he stuck out his hand and someone put a dollar in it, what happened?
20. What does Mark say the homeless person thinks of the person that gives them a dollar?