William Twos Travel South On Honeymoon

Tallahassee, Fla., was the destination of Mr. and Mrs. William Moore Two when they left last Saturday on a southern wedding trip. Monsignor J. P. McGuire read the ceremony at 9 a. m. Saturday at St. James pro-cathedral when Miss Barbara Schlenk, 142 North Longwood street, daughter of Clement C. Schlenk of University City, Mo., became the bride of Mr. Two.

For her wedding Barbara wore white celanese sheer with full sleeves and buttons from the lace collar to the waistline. Her fingertip veil fell from a coronet of artificial orange blossoms and lilies of the valley that had been worn by her grandmother as a bride 58 years ago. Her gold bracelets had also belonged to her grandmother, and she carried a crystal rosary that had been given her by the groom. Barbara's grandfather, George L. Schlenk, with whom she has made her home, gave her in marriage.

Yellow organza was worn by the maid of honor, Miss Phyllis Smith, and the bridesmaid, Miss Virginia Scandoli, wore aqua organza. Their dresses were fashioned similarly to the bride's with Peter Pan collars and long sleeves. They carried souvenir roses. Robert Lyndie was best man, and John F. McNamara and Herbert Foley ushered.

After the ceremony, breakfast was served to 25 guests at 519 North Main street. A reception was held later at the Schlenk hoze. When the bridal couple left for the south Barbara was wearing a brown jacket dress trimmed in white, with white accessories. After Monday they will be at home at 142 North Longwood street. In Tallahassee, the bride and groom will visit Barbara's sister, Mrs. Richard Dittman, the former Elizabeth Schlenk of Rockford.

The bride, a graduate of Rockford high school, is employed by the Thayer Action company and is a member of the Junior guild of the Catholic Woman's league. Mr. Two was graduated from St. Thomas high school and is employed by the Barber-Colman company. He is the son of Mrs. Frank Berg, 630 Rome avenue, and of Joseph Two of Rockford.
