The Commitment of an Everyday Missionary

Extravagant God of hope and blessing,
I choose to become an everyday missionary wherever I go.
Help me to let go of the past- cleanse me of sin
and diminish the power of my mistakes and failures.
Empower me to look past the places where
I think my personality and temperament limit me.
I commit my life to you and ask you to use me
to spread your hope and goodness- in my home,
at my workplace, inside and outside, and everywhere I go.
In the name of the resurrected Jesus. Amen

Welcome!

We're so glad you're here this morning. If you're a guest with us today, please fill out a Welcome Card found in the chair pocket in front of you. You can drop it in the offering or put it in the Welcome Box located in the Lobby.

Be comfortable. As we worship, please feel free to raise your hands, stand, sit, sing, or just listen! If you are a guest with us, please do not feel obligated to participate in the offering. If you have trouble hearing the sermon, we have an amplification device that you can try.

If you brought your family with you today, thank you! Sitting still and being quiet are not always easy for kids (and adults), so please relax and let them be kids! We have Kids' Clipboards available in the Lobby for them to enjoy.

Children K-6th grade will be dismissed for Kids' Church after the music. You can pick them up after the service in the Chapel, the room across the Lobby to the left.

study questions

- Why did David have to run into the cave?
- What does David do to change his circumstances around?
- What situation in your life makes you want to run into a cave?

living it out this week:

- Write out a prayer that states your dependency on God, even if your life situation makes your wonder.
- Going further- read Ephesians 3.1-13 and text Pastor Chris one insight about the passage

Living the Psalms this week:

- Psalm 55
- Psalm 56
- Psalm 57

"Prayer is the voice of our dependency. Strong, independent people do not pray; dependent people broken of self-will pray and look to God."
