

The Lord has called us, as women intercessors, to fast and pray on Yom Kippur, The Day of Atonement, in Ottawa on October 12th, 2024, to speak out against the spirit of the age, attacking families, women and children in our nation.

We heard the sound of a great and mighty army marching on the horizon with the Lord of Hosts, against the warring faction whose intention is to destroy the fabric of society – the family. This is an army of God’s daughters coming to claim back their inheritance.

This is a time for battle - war has been unleashed upon our families, the fruit of our wombs and an attack on our identity as daughters and mothers. A veil of darkness has spread across the land of Canada, but God has an answer. He calls “Esthers to Arise”.

Human trafficking has increased and pedophilia, which was considered evil yesterday, has been slowly accepted as an identity, influencing wicked Governmental leaders in our nation.

Yes, a veil of darkness has been spread across the land of Canada but God has an answer. He calls “Esthers to Arise”.

Isaiah 60 says “Arise and shine for your light has come and the glory of the Lord has risen upon you. Darkness covers the earth and thick darkness the peoples, but the Lord rises upon you and His glory appears over you”.

God is calling His daughters to arise and shine. He is releasing the mantle of Esther upon his women, as we step into this calling. This is a mantle of courage and boldness to fight fiercely against the enemy, and to stand on guard for our families.

You will remember in the story of Esther, she is made queen to Xerxes and her cousin Mordecai, uncovers a conspiracy by a man called Haman who plots to kill and annihilate all the Jews, young and old, women and children, in a single day. When Mordecai heard of the plot, as he sat in the gateways of the city, he tore his clothes and put on sackcloth and ashes.

When Esther heard about what her cousin Mordecai had done, she sent a messenger to find out what was happening and he replied with a message from Mordecai that she must tell the king.

When Esther explained that anyone approaching the king without being summoned is put to death unless he extends his scepter, Mordecai sent back another message: "Do not think that because you are in the king's house you alone of all Jews will escape.

FOR IF YOU REMAIN SILENT AT THIS TIME, RELIEF AND DELIVERENCE FOR THE JEWS WILL ARISE FROM ANOTHER PLACE BUT YOU AND YOUR FATHER'S HOUSE WILL PERISH. AND WHO KNOWS THAT YOU HAVE COME TO THE ROYAL POSITION FOR SUCH A TIME AS THIS.

Haman had partnered with evil and was handing Israel over unto death. However, God Almighty was piercing and exposing all the corruption that had been covered up in secret.

It is written: “Woe to those who go to great depths to hide their plans from the Lord, who do their work in darkness and think “who sees us? Who will know?”

Haman oppressed the people of Israel brutally, in order to silence and annihilate them. This is currently what is happening in the church today. It is being silenced so it can no longer function in its original calling. As a result, this will redefine the nation.

Haman represents the principality of Antisemitism witnessed in the holocaust that slaughtered men, women and children, moving keenly and swiftly to bring down a nation. This murderous spirit is now targeting the people of the book in Canada.

However, God’s daughters today will not be silenced. They will move with the courageous mantle of Esther, to tear down this principality with the support of their Mordecais.

God is giving us prayer strategies that will rise above this murderous spirit. These are divine strategies we need right now. These Mordecais will arise, defend, and protect the women of God and their families together. In doing so, God will quickly respond to strike the principality of death and hades over Canada.

I am speaking of spiritual Esthers and Mordecais.

Hell is screaming at the sound of this approaching army. Hell cannot stop what is coming – God’s daughters forming a mighty army of beauty and strength.

They are warrior women, nurturers, soldiers and protectors. God is raising up the Esthers, like mother bears, that are coming over the mountains to Ottawa this year – on Yom Kippur, the Day of Atonement, on October 12, 2024, with a resolve in their eyes to protect their young, to restore the family, to redeem the unborn, and to retrieve the lost prodigals, young and old.

God is calling you, daughter, to a charge, to arise as a mother over Canada and to take back the land you have been assigned. We are defenders over our families.

It is a divine call from heaven resting upon us in this hour.

We will push back the darkness and expose the light. It is written: The Lord announced the word, and great was the company of those who proclaimed it.

The daughters of God with fire in our eyes, burning with passion for our beloved, Yeshua, are moving in response to His call. And the ground will shake, as these daughters march together in unity, sending shockwaves into the enemy’s camp as they come to retrieve what has been stolen.

This is an urgent call – with a drumbeat and the sound of war.

The mantle of Esther is being released upon us, as His voice echoes His call to Rise up. He is giving our enemies into our hands as we step into our calling.

In one hand, we are holding the sword of the spirit, the word of God, and in the other, we are holding onto the blood-stained hands of Messiah.

We are moving to the roaring sound of the Lion of the Tribe of Judah.

God is calling us to repair the ancient ruins and to restore the devastation of many generations.

Stretch out your hands, daughters, and receive the mantle of Esther. It is the mantle of courage and boldness. The flickering flame in your spirit will burn brighter and brighter as you step out.

Do not hold back, and just as Esther had the courage to enter the palace of the king under the pain of death, you, too, will be stepping into your divine appointment, your divine calling in the power of the Holy Spirit.

Rise up daughters of the King, step up, and speak out in this moment daughter, for who knows, you were called “For such a time as this”.

Amen.
