

Susan

Support Worker

My name is Snjezana, though I commonly go by Susan. I am a married mother of three boys and a devoted animal lover, sharing my home with two cats, a dog, and a turtle. My family and I relocated to Australia in December 2011. I was raised in Germany but originally hail from the former Yugoslavia.

I have a passion for visiting the beach and enjoying quality time with friends over coffee. Colleagues and acquaintances often describe me as warm, outgoing, compassionate, and highly understanding. I began working as a support worker at the age of 16 and have developed a deep passion for my profession. Supporting my clients in achieving their goals and enhancing their daily lives brings me immense fulfilment.
