

Jayden

Support Worker

Jayden is a dedicated Psychology student at Flinders University with a strong passion for helping others live fulfilling and independent lives. Drawing on his background in the Australian Defence Force, he brings exceptional teamwork, discipline, patience, and empathy to his support work.

Outside of study and work, Jayden enjoys staying active through boxing, running, and outdoor adventures. A proud dad and family man, he values balance, connection, and making a positive difference in the lives of those around him.
