

And God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes; and there will be no more death, neither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain; for the former things are passed away.

Let not your heart be troubled: ye believe in God, believe also in Me. In my Father's house are many mansions: if it were not so, I would have told you. I GO to prepare a place for you.

And if I GO and prepare a place for you, I will come again, and receive you unto Myself; that where I am, there ye may be also.

A Legacy™

A Heritage: Character Qualities, Memoirs...

*For I am persuaded, that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor principalities, nor powers, nor things present, nor things to come, nor height, nor depth, nor any other creature, shall be able to separate us from the love of God, which is in Christ Jesus our Lord.

— Romans 8:38-39

Chanell Latoni Wright

SUNRISE: January 20, 2004 — SUNSET: February 27, 2011

Chanell Latoni Wright, a girly girl, loved ballet and tap. She loved to read and write. She loved to shop. She loved Lanie, the last American Girl doll she received for Christmas. She loved the color orange. She loved the Disney Channel. She loved watching movies and eating popcorn. Chanell loved the life God gave her. In spite of being diagnosed two weeks after birth with sickle-cell anemia, which deforms red blood cells and causes numerous health problems, and despite spending much of her short 7 years of life in and out of the hospital....Chanell loved life!

Understandably so, Chanell was used of God to touch and influence many lives through several significant life lessons to include:

- No matter what you're going through, you can still focus and care about others.
- Give close attention to what seemingly are small things—give lots of hugs and verbal affirmations.
 - Make a daily habit of “Show and Tell”....daily demonstrate your love and concern to your family.
 - Be a GREAT “sissy!” (i.e. sister!) And always have yourself a “Shero” you can laugh with.
 - Be positive! Be Happy! Be Nice! No matter what.

Despite her sickness, but with a great attitude toward life itself, she was always able to bounce back quickly. She attended school at Wolf Lake Elementary in Apopka, FL and was well-liked by classmates and teachers. “She loved to write,” said Principal Caroll Grimando. “She was a beautiful writer. She loved to write about her family.”

It was a gift of God to be in Chanell’s presence, as she knew how to give joy to those around her. Chanell was loved by many and will never be forgotten. She was preceded in death by: her brother, Malik Antonio Wright (1997), her paternal grandfather, Levi Wright (2004) and uncle Leon Wright (1990).

Chanell is survived by her parents – Tony and Chiquita Wright of Apopka; sisters – Cherrish Wright of Apopka; Charmaine Wright and Charmelle Wright of Alpharetta, GA; maternal grandparents – Carrie Scott and Harold Scott, both of Apopka, and her paternal grandmother – Cora Wright of Altamonte Springs; uncles and aunts – Darnell (Shaunlia) Scott, Gerald Scott, Alice (Joe) Hudson, Margaret (Wayne) Hamilton, Shirley (Billy) Sneed, Evelena (Elish) Jones, Debvia (Renaldo) Sneed, Levi (Wanda) Wright, Lester Wright; godmother – Tamyka Thomas; godsister – Tavia Henderson; and a host of cousins, aunts, uncles, other relatives, and many friends.

FROM Psalm 91

He that dwelleth in the secret place of the most High shall abide under the shadow of the Almighty. I will say of the LORD, He is my Refuge and my Fortress: my God; in Him will I trust.
