A Legacy™

A Heritage: Character Qualities, Memoirs...

He [God] gives power to the weak, and to those who have no might He increases strength. Even the youths shall faint and be weary, and the young men shall utterly fall, but those who wait on the Lord shall renew their strength; they shall mount up with wings like eagles, they shall run and not be weary, they shall walk and not faint. — Isaiah 40:29-31

CHEF

Norman Earl Kinsey

Chef Norman Earl Kinsey was born on February 10, 1955 to his proud parents, Norman Lee and Lillian J. Kinsey in Richland, North Carolina. Norman was one of 10 children born to this union. The family moved to Wilmington, North Carolina where he attended the public schools starting with Gregory Elementary School. Later Norman's family relocated to Pensacola, before making their final migration in 1971 to Orlando. There he attended the great Jones High School, graduating in the class of 1973. It was there at Jones where he also met the love of his life, Deborah, whom he shared the same birth date with, and who remained by his side for 52 years.

Norman was always a hard worker and had the blessing of learning and training with the best of the best, to include the Culinary Institute of Walt Disney World. There he earned his place in one of the first graduating classes under the supervision of Gary Wright and several foreign chefs. He later went on to build a very successful career in culinary arts, to include working as a Personal Chef for celebrities Winnie and Arnold Palmer, as well as Orlando Magic Tracy McGrady. Chef Norman was instrumental at getting the The Empress Lily off the ground, as he was The Master Chef for this project, trained by "The Chef" himself, Mr. Gary Wright. Some of his specialties included: stuffed shells, lasagne, peach cobbler, and quiche. He also specialized in customized ice carvings, which won him numerous awards.

Norman always had a keen sense of humor. He loved his family, and didn't care who or what the need was, he just wanted to be there for his family. He never met a stranger, and thoroughly enjoyed sports. Norman was an excellent softball player, as were his his brothers. Together they coached youth city league football, and senior men's softball. He didn't care to talk on the phone much, but was a manly man that always said "I love you" when he did.

He was preceded in death by his father, 3 sisters, and 2 brothers.

He lives behind to cherish his memory: his loving wife of 48 years – Deborah Kinsey; 2 sons – Norman Kinsey Jr. and Demarcus "Pee Wee" Kinsey; his mother – Lillian Kinsey; 2 sisters – Joyce (Charles) Butler and Trances Kinsey; 1 brother – Andrew (Jennie) Fountain; grandchildren – Nyshae Kinsey, Jakaar Kinsey, and Demarcia Kinsey; 5 great grandchildren; in-laws – Yvette (Darryl) Caldwell, Michelle "Big Girl" Morgan, Darryl Morgan, and Cedric (Kim) Morgan; aunts – Vera Kinsey and Lucille Kinsey; goddaughter – Bobbie Danielle "Dusty" Akins; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives, and many friends.
