Words of Comfort Pastor Rev. Erika Smith

Recessional – Officiants & Family

Yet we have this assurance:
Those who belong to God will live; their bodies will rise again! Those who sleep in the earth will rise up and sing for joy!

– Isaiah 26:19 NLT

“And God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes;
and there will be no more death, neither sorrow,
nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain;
for the former things are passed away.”
– Revelation 21:4

Interment

Words of Appreciation
The family of Dr. George W. Chisholm wishes to express their sincere appreciation and thanks for every kind word spoken, every prayer said, and for every deed done. Your thoughtfulness has shown them
the true meaning of Christian friendship and love.

May God forever bless and keep each and everyone of you in His care.

We take comfort in 1 Corinthians 2:9...

“Eye has not seen, nor ear heard, nor have entered into the heart of man, the of man, the things which God has prepared for those who love him.”

A Legacy™

a heritage: character qualities, memoirs . . .

“To everything there is a season, and a time to every purpose under the heaven: a time to be born, and a time to die, a time to plant, and a time to pluck up that which is planted....a time to weep, and a time to laugh; a time to mourn, and a time to dance...”

– Ecclesiastes 3:1, 2, 4

DR.
George Williams Chisholm MD

A MAN WHO SERVED GOD AND THE PEOPLE

Dr. George William Chisholm, beloved son of the late Dr. David Luther Chisholm and the late Willa Dixon Chisholm, departed this life on July 23, 2025, following a brief illness. Born in Terre Haute, Indiana, George began his education in the Colleton County school system before attending Boggs Academy in Keysville, Georgia.

At an early age, George became a member of Hopewell Presbyterian Church in Walterboro, South Carolina—a foundation that shaped his quiet strength and steady character throughout his life.

Dr. Chisholm pursued higher education with distinction, first attending Morehouse College and then Benedict College, where he earned a Bachelor of Science degree in Biology in 1965. He went on to receive his Doctorate of Medicine from the Medical University of South Carolina in 1974. Following medical school, he completed his postgraduate training in Obstetrics and Gynecology at Washington Medical Center in Washington, D.C.

He began his medical career as a faculty member at the University of Florida in Gainesville before settling into private practice in Orlando, Florida, where he would faithfully serve countless women and families over the years. He was certified by the American Board of Obstetrics and Gynecology and held membership in the National Medical Association, among other professional organizations.

Dr. Chisholm was known for his professional demeanor, exceptional care, and deeply private nature. His patients felt the love and concern he held for them, and in return they loved him to life—an uncommon testimony in today’s world. He had a dry wit that snuck up on you, a deep appreciation for jazz, a love for fine cars, and a quiet enjoyment of good wine.

He was preceded in death by his parents, Dr. David Luther Chisholm and Willa Dixon Chisholm, as well as his brother, David L. Chisholm.

Dr. Chisholm leaves to cherish his memory:

his devoted cousins – Dr. Jonathan C. (Marilyn) Glen of Savannah, Georgia, Dr. Sheryllis Washington of St. Louis, Missouri, Alan Dixon of Danville, Illinois, Arthur Ree Qander of Austin, Texas, Cassandra L. Hicks of Jacksonville, Florida, Patricia Hicks Harley and husband Langston Harley, also of Jacksonville, FL, Roland (Connie) Gardner of Beaufort, South Carolina, John Gardner of Charleston, South Carolina, and David Gordon Ulmer of Hardeeville, South Carolina.

He is also fondly remembered by longtime friends – Wes and Marver Carter of Windermere, Florida, and Tracy Edwards of Dallas, Texas, who served faithfully as his caregiver in his final season.

Dr. George Chisholm lived a life marked by excellence, compassion, and quiet service. He will be deeply missed, and long remembered.

“Surely goodness and mercy will follow me all the days of my life, and I will dwell in the House of the LORD forever!”

– from Psalm 23
