

And God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes; and there will be no more death, neither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain; for the former things are passed away. And He that sat upon the throne said, "Behold, I make all things new." And He said unto me, "Write, for these words are true and faithful."

— Revelation 21:4-5

"let us not love with words or speech but with actions in truth"

— 1 John 3:18

“Yes, dear friends, we are already God’s children, and we can’t even imagine what we will be like when Christ returns. But we do know that when He comes we will be like Him, for we will see Him as He really is.” — 1 John 3:2

BRO. Eddie Franklyn Rodriguez

Eddie Franklyn Rodriguez—known lovingly as “Big Eddie”—was born in Ponce, Puerto Rico, and peacefully entered the presence of his Lord on December 9, 2025, in Orlando, Florida, at the age of 87.

Eddie was many things: a devoted husband, a father and dad, a proud grandpa and great-grandpa, a mechanic with gifted hands, a teacher by nature, and above all, a man who deeply loved Jesus Christ. To know Eddie was to know warmth, wisdom, and a well-timed joke. He was friendly, caring, hardworking, purposeful, and original—never a copy of anyone else. His greatest aim was simple and steady: to do what was right in the eyes of the Lord.

Music was Eddie’s secret fuel. Turn on a song and his shoulders would start rocking, his feet tapping, and his fingers magically transformed into drumsticks—keeping perfect rhythm, of course. Saturdays were sacred for ice cream runs, a tradition he took very seriously. Sundays were even more special, as they were reserved for worship and time with his church family, whom he loved dearly.

Eddie had a Masters degree in Business Administration, but preferred to work 25 years as an expert automotive technician for Alamo Enterprise, fixing what was broken and teaching others how to do the same. Beyond his career, he faithfully volunteered with Prison Fellowship Ministry, preaching and sharing the Word of God with inmates. His deepest passion was seeing men grow into real men—men of faith, integrity, strength, and purpose—exactly as God designed them to be.

Eddie was preceded in death by his parents – Herminio Rodriguez (a saxophonist!) and Donatila Perez; his son – Ramon; and the mother of his children – Isabel Rodriguez. He is survived by his beloved wife – Rosalina; his children – Edith, Jose, and Francisco and Cassie; and his bonus children – Darlyn, Harry, and Rose. Eddie also leaves behind his cherished grandchildren – Nicole, Luz Elaine, Micheal, Felisha, and Antonio, and his great-grandchildren – Ka’Jon, Keonna, Bella, and Savanah, each of whom brought him immense pride and joy.

Eddie’s life was a living sermon: steady, joyful, and grounded in faith. While his hands are now at rest and his fingers no longer drum along to the beat, heaven has gained a faithful servant—and undoubtedly, the rhythm just got better.

He will be deeply missed, fondly remembered, and joyfully reunited one day with those who loved him.

EDDIE’S FAVORITE BIBLE VERSE – Galatians 2:20

“I have been crucified with Christ; it is no longer I who live, but Christ lives in me; and the life which I now live in the flesh I live by faith in the Son of God, who loved me and gave Himself for me.”
