In Loving Memory of Larry Lee Paul

Tribute by sisters Joyce Paul, Maggie Paul, Cynthia Harley, Sonya Paul, and Deanna Paul

We know you are not here to read this tribute to you, but we pray you knew how loved you were, even with all of our imperfections. We pray the legacy you lived will be passed down to your children.

Larry Lee Paul, aka “Uncle Boob,”one of the fondest memories we remember is always seeing you laying in the middle of the floor in your home, oftentimes with your food and your bible. You had such a spirit of hospitality by always making your famous pancakes and peanut butter cookies, and inviting the family to come over.

These last five years were a rough journey for you, but you still always checked on the family. Despite your mood swings, you were a good God-fearing family man with a spirit of humility.

Our hope was God would release you to make a peaceful transition after such a horrendous battle. You ran a tough race, our brother, but you kept your eyes on the ultimate prize. Our comfort is knowing you knew God and made every effort to live for Him.

Isaiah 57:1-2 NIV

*“The righteous perish,
and no one ponders it
in his heart; devout
men are taken away,
and no one understands that the righteous are taken away to be spared from evil. Those who walk upright enter
peace; they find rest
as they lie in death.”*

We pray you found your peace. Love you forever!

*It's Really
Not Good-bye....*
