

Celebrating the Life and Legacy of
OUR BELOVED MOTHER

"Ms. Mae"

Alice Mae Hall

SUNRISE – December 28, 1961

• SUNSET – November 7, 2025

Yet we have this assurance: Those who belong to God will live; their bodies will rise again! Those who sleep in the earth will rise up and sing for joy! – Isaiah 26:19 NLT

On this day, we pause to honor and celebrate the precious and significant life of Alice Mae Hall, who was born on December 28, 1961, in Orlando, Florida. She entered eternal rest on November 7, 2025, surrounded by the love of her family.

Alice was the beloved daughter of the late James and Cherry Hall, and the devoted wife of Reginald Prince, her husband of more than 30 years.

“Ms. Mae,” as she was affectionately called by many was educated in the Orange County Public School System, which laid the foundation for a lifelong journey of learning, growth, and purpose. She was known throughout her community for her joyful spirit, her generosity, and her famous knack for caring for everybody. Alice was known as the Neighborhood Grandma because she was a nurturer at heart. She was a happy soul that kept everyone laughing—especially since she never quite got anybody’s name right! LOL

Ms. Mae was also a true “hustler at heart”; she was The Candy Lady in the neighborhood and always found creative ways to provide for her family. She was a phenomenal cook, a meticulous “household cleanliness engineer,” and a woman with a heart of gold—quick to lend a helping hand, welcome others in, and love without limits.

Alice was preceded in death by her parents – James and Cherry Hall; her siblings – Katie Graham, Robert Graham, Tommy Kegel, and Riley Griffin; her daughter – Natasha Young; her niece – Natalie Young; and her nephew – Stacy Graham.

She leaves behind a beautiful legacy to be cherished by her children:
Timothy Hall, Reginald Prince Jr., Ajhai Prince, Alaija Prince, Khing Butler, and Khimani Butler.

In Appreciation

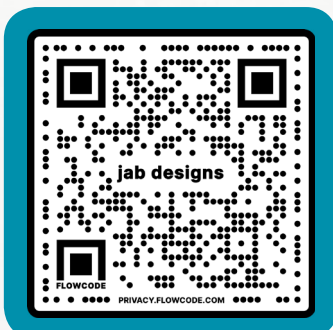

The family of Alice Mae "Ms. Mae" Hall wishes to extend genuine gratitude and appreciation to all who found so many comforting ways to convey condolences, acts of love, heartfelt sympathy, uplifting words, supporting prayers, or whatever acts of kindness you expressed during this time.

Please accept our sincere gratitude and know that your love and support have meant more to us than mere words could ever express. May God's blessings rain upon each of you! We take solace in 1 Corinthians 2:9.....

"Eye has not seen, nor ear heard, nor have entered into the heart of man, the things which God has prepared for those who love Him."
