Recessional – Officiants and Family

We now have this light shining in our hearts, but we ourselves are like fragile clay jars containing this great treasure. This makes it clear that our great power is from God, NOT from ourselves....so that the LIFE of Jesus may also be seen in our bodies.
– from 2 Corinthians 4:7,10b

And God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes; and there will be no more death, neither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain; for the former things are passed away.
– Revelation 21:4

A Legacy™

a heritage: character qualities, memoirs . . .

"My mission in life is not merely to survive, but to thrive; and to do so with some passion, some compassion, some humor, and some style."

— Maya Angelou

Kumye "Mondy" Hill

Kumye Hill, affectionately known as "Mondy", peacefully transitioned from her earthly home on Saturday, July 26, 2025.

Kumye was born on March 5, 1931, in Camp Hill, Alabama, to the late Thelma and Bubba Burns. She received her early education in the public schools of Camp Hill, Alabama, and later continued her schooling in Orlando, Florida, after relocating there.

It was in the Conway community of Orlando where Kumye met the love of her life, Leroy Hill, Sr. Their union was one built on love and faith, and they were joined in holy matrimony, raising a family together with devotion and care.

A woman of strong faith, Kumye accepted Christ at an early age and remained a devoted member of St. Mary Missionary Baptist Church in Conway, Florida, where she faithfully served and worshipped for many years.

Kumye was preceded in death by her beloved husband – Leroy Hill, Sr., her parents – Thelma and Bubba Burns, her siblings – Eloise Burns, Evelyn Burns, Richard Burns, and Jessie Burns, and her dear son – Leroy Hill, Jr. and daughter-in-law – Theoria Burgess.

Affectionate, kind-hearted, and full of grace, Mondy will be remembered for the deep love she shared with her family. She especially cherished spending time with her children, grandchildren, and great-grandchildren. Her joy came from traveling, shopping, and preparing delicious meals – meals that became cherished family traditions and fond memories. Her cooking was more than nourishment; it was an expression of love that brought people together.

Kumye "Mondy" Hill leaves behind a legacy of faith, family, and love that will continue to live on in the hearts of all who knew and loved her.

Memories of Kumye Hill will live on forever in the hearts of her family: children – Gail Hill-McKinney (Percy), and Richard S. Hill (Sabrina); grandchildren – Ashley Hill, Jada Hill Preston, Alena Akpobome (Oghenejiro), Kaitlyn Menefee (Christian), and Rachel Pennington-Hill (Nahom); great grandchildren – Ashley Hill, Alijah Hill, Teauna Powell, Jemma Preston, Gabriel Menefee, Malcolm Menefee, and Cylas Akpobome; nieces and nephews – Brenda Reed (Sylvester), Renee Ash (Tony), and Valerie Waters (William); and a host of relatives and dear friends of the family who have shown amazing support and an outpouring of love.
