MOTHER

Susie Mae Myers

MOTHER • GRANDMOTHER • GREAT GRANDMOTHER • FRIEND

On Thursday night, March 7, 2024 Susie M. Myers' journey took a more beautiful path – a path to her Lord. Born December 2, 1930, to the late Precious Ada Bryant and Nathaniel Counts, she was reared and loved by her 12 older siblings.

Susie was a proud graduate of Jones High School, Class of 1948, venturing onward to graduate from the School of Business in Detroit, Michigan. And in 1952, she was elected “Miss Negro Chamber of Commerce” of Orlando, by successfully competing in a drive to enroll the most individuals as members of the Negro Chamber of Commerce.

Susie worked as a healthcare provider at Sunland Mental Health Hospital for several years, before later working as the church secretary at Shiloh Baptist Church of Orlando under the leadership of Rev. J.W. Toomer. She eventually expanded her wings and joined the Prudential Insurance Company where she worked for greater than 20 years.
