

And God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes; and there will be no more death, neither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain; for the former things are passed away. And He that sat upon the throne said, "Behold, I make all things new." And He said unto me, "Write, for these words are true and faithful."

— Revelation 21:4-5

"At the end of the day, a clear message must be in the work. Art is a living thing that possesses you. When it does, you begin to create."

— Arthur Dawson

A Heritage: Character Qualities, Memoirs...

“Yes, dear friends, we are already God’s children, and we can’t even imagine what we will be like when Christ returns. But we do know that when He comes we will be like Him, for we will see Him as He really is.” – 1 John 3:2

Arthur L. Dawson was born in 1964 to Sylvester and Mildred Dawson. He attended Wakulla High School south of Tallahassee, and was active in basketball, football, and track.

Arthur served six years in the U.S. Army, and later worked as a Corrections Officer, transitioning to a Forensics Artist with the Lake County Sheriff’s Office. Graduating at the top of his class within the Department of Law Enforcement’s Art Academy, Arthur worked in the disciplines of Composite Art and Imagery, Facial Reconstruction, Age Progression, and Demonstrative Evidence.

Arthur stepped out and created his own art studio, Contemporary Masters, Inc. which included a program for teaching art to young people called YAP [Youth Art Program]. This was designed to help develop art awareness in underserved communities and educational systems in both the private and public sectors, to ensure art is an essential part of every child’s life.

In 2021 his designed bronze plaque for a Tuskegee Airmen monument was unveiled in Port Huron, MI.

Arthur Lee Dawson was preceded in death by his father – Sylvester Dawson and brother – John Lee Dawson.

Yet we have this assurance: Those who belong to God will live; their bodies will rise again! Those who sleep in the earth will rise up and sing for joy!
