A LEGACY™

A Heritage: Character Qualities, Memoirs...

"Eye has not seen, nor ear heard, nor have entered into the heart of man, The things which God has prepared for those who love him."

– 1 Corinthians 2:9

Annie was born on December 18, 1918, in Minneola, Florida to her parents, Richard and Maggie Davis. In Minneola she was raised in the Methodist Church and attended faithfully. Later she married Herbert Demps and moved to Pasadena, California where she attended cosmetology school and became an accomplished hair dresser and stylist.

She resided in Pasadena until the passing of her husband and then moved back to Orlando. Upon her arrival, she joined Mount Olive AME Church and worked tirelessly in the Pillars of Faith Seniors ministry. She was adored by her friends and neighbors; always available to anyone in need.

Annie enjoyed cooking, thrift-store shopping with her sister, spending time with her family and friends, and lending a helping hand wherever she could.

She was diagnosed with Alzheimer's in the mid 90's and lived with her devoted sister Mary Ann until her passing on September 6, 2012.

Going home before her were her parents, her brothers – Alfonso, Richard, and Johnny, and her husband, Herbert Demps.

Annie leaves to celebrate her life: her sister – Mary Robinson; two nephews – Anthony L. Robinson and Arthur L. Robinson; and Arthur's wife, Claudia; her sisters-in-law – Blanche Bates and Clara Sherrill; and an adoring host of nieces, nephews, other relatives, and special friends.
