

WATER MIND

A WORLD OF WATERCOLORS

By Shyam Karri

Shyam Karri is a trained architect and a furniture designer, He took a leap of faith into world of watercolors. Since 8 years he was actively exploring the medium and carved a niche for his expression.

His works tickle the mind and stir the depths, letting one rest on the empty space he provides on the canvas, he takes one through various questions and emotions. He juxtaposes the subjects in a way that each viewer shall complete the story in their own way.

His works lets one reflect upon boding, love, compassion ,choicelessness and freedom.

The background is an abstract watercolor painting. It features large, overlapping, organic shapes in various shades of red, from light pink to deep, saturated red, and some areas of orange. The texture is soft and painterly, with visible brushstrokes and color blending. The overall composition is warm and inviting.

A watercolor illustration of a pond scene. In the foreground, there are several dark green lotus leaves and two pink lotus flowers. One flower is in full bloom, and the other is a bud. The background features stylized, layered mountains in shades of blue, green, and purple. The overall style is soft and artistic, with a textured, paper-like background.
