- Touching net at any time is a foul, except when a hard driven spike forces net into a player while he/she is on his/her side of the court. Any player that touches the net after spiking a ball, the play will be whistled and called a side out.
- A player may reach over the net while blocking or in follow-through of a hit ball, but cannot reach over net in attempt to intercept ball until opponent has completed attack. Thus, a spiked ball cannot be blocked until it has been hit.

- A girl must hit the ball at least once before it goes over the net unless there are less than three total hits.
- A player cannot attack or block the ball directly off the serve.
