Mooreville, NC: Dawson “DK” Cram to drive for Long Motorsports in the NASCAR Gander Outdoor RV Truck Series

when the team returns to racing in 2020.

DK last raced in 2019 at the fall Martinsville, VA Speedway and was ready to earn his first top 10 finish while running 8th with three laps to go when he was spun out by a fellow competitor, however Dawson was able to recover with a 13th place finish.

Team owner Boyd Long – “Dawson is a young, talented up and coming racer, considering his record of success in the NASCAR Truck series, and everything he has raced since the age of 5, he’s a natural talent and comes from a family rich in the history of NASCAR racing and knows what it takes to succeed at this level of racing. We look forward to partnering with Dawson for the 2020 season and beyond.”

Long Motorsports is a NASCAR Gander Outdoor RV Truck Series Race Team, based out of Mooreville, NC seeking marketing partners for 2020 NASCAR Race Season. For more details contact our office directly at (703)-987-5190 or log onto blong@LongMotorsports1.com
