Elaine Mahaffey, Chapter President, called the meeting to order at 12:00 and invited everyone to enjoy the pot luck lunch.

- At approximately 12:30, Elaine began the business meeting. The minutes of the last meeting were reviewed and two corrections made (add Marlys Hunt to the hospitality committee and remove Paule-Marie Bunyan; correct the education notes to demonstration of Sashiko, not Alphasew.) A motion was made to accept the minutes with corrections by Becky Gibson and seconded by Cheryl Holtz. The minutes were approved.
- Finance: Paule-Marie Bunyan gave the financial report. The chapter has $6035, and Patriotic Piecers has approximately $1400. There is a bill for Patriotic Piecers waiting to be paid at Pinetop Star.
- Old Business: Maggie Smeh reports that volunteers are no longer needed to bring door prizes, as every available slot has been filled and she is now starting an alternate list
- New Business: Elaine would like the officers and program committee to meet briefly at 11:00 at the January meeting to review upcoming education.
- Education: Education for January will be on locker hooking. For those who do not know what locker hooking is, it is a technique for using fabric scraps, twine, and rug backing to create rugs, coasters and other items. Education for February will be a demonstration of Sashiko, a type of Japanese embroidery used for quilting.
- Quilt Show: The 2022 quilt show will be held on Thursday and Friday, August 11 and 12th. Take-in will be held on August 5th and 6th. Judging will be done on August 8th, hanging on August 10th, and pick-up on Saturday, August 13.
- Maggie Heath, the Director of the Veterans' Village/ Walking Down Ranch in Lakeside was invited to attend this meeting. Elaine presented her with a donation on behalf of the chapter for $1800.
- A motion was made to adjourn the meeting by Sandy Wagner and seconded by Ellen Yacovone. The motion was passed and the meeting was adjourned at 12:42 pm. The Christmas party followed the business meeting

Respectfully submitted,

Diana Anderson, Chapter Secretary
