Dear Falkner Swamp Friends,

We are transitioning to a once-a month newsletter beginning July. We'll continue monthly through October, incorporating my sabbatical from Sept 1 through Oct 31. As needed, weekly newsletters may come out.

Over the past month much has changed in our nation. I wish I had clarity myself to help you also cut through the billowing clouds of bombs that keep going off (literally and figuratively.)

I made a list of “all the things” – from gun violence, war, Supreme Court decisions that are and will drastically alter our landscape, the hearings about the January 6 insurrection, earthquakes & continued climate change damage. It makes my heart hurt and head spin.

For now I am sitting with the events swirling around us and offer them to God in prayer. As a person of Christian faith, I am aware that God will ask me to participate in the healing of our world, as Jesus modeled and then equipped his disciples to do likewise.

As I am absorbing the earthly news, I am reminded of the gospel good news, that God loves us fiercely and forever and forever is seeking to heal and transform all creation. See for example Genesis 1:31; Exodus 6:1-8; Psalms 96, 102; Isaiah 40; Micah 4: 1-4; Luke 1:25-35; Luke 4:14-21; Matthew 5:1-16; Matthew 27:51-56; Matthew 28:8-10; Mark 10:21; Mark 12:28-34; John 15:1-17; John 16:12-16; Acts 2:42-47; Acts 10:34; Ephesians 1:3-14; Colossians 1:15-20; Revelation 20:1-6.

As we approach this Sunday, closest to July 4, we will consider Jesus' words to his disciples as he sends them off in pairs to share this gospel good news, Luke 10:1-11, 16-20. A guiding question for me as I consider how to share this scripture with you is, what does it mean to carry our peace with us?

July 10 will be an Apostolic Sunday. Erica and the choir are putting together a hymn sing with introductions for each. The list includes: It is Well With My Soul (Wayne Gruver), In the Garden (Deb Gruver), Take My Life and Let it Be (Arlene Umstead), Amazing Grace (Bob Schnaars), Precious Lord Take My Hand (Debbie Lord), and How Great Thou Art (Bob Erb).

July 24 I will offer a service of healing. It will include many of the elements for worship as on a typical Sunday, and also time for people to approach for prayer and anointing with oil, if desired. July 31-August 7 are my final vacation Sundays for the year, and we will welcome Laura Brown and Rev. Paul Jones to lead us in worship.

With you on the journey, Rev. Frances

Summer Schedule for Apostolic and Vacation Sundays

As a reminder, our church observes an “Apostolic Sunday” as Rev. Frances is three-quarters (not full) time with our church. Typically, they occur every other month, for a total of 6 per year. On these Sundays, called “Apostolic” in reference to the Apostles in the book of Acts who were itinerant (traveling) preachers, we often host a supply preacher who leads worship with our lay leader. It turns out there will be an Apostolic Sunday both in June and July, plus some vacation Sundays. Rev. Frances arranged the following for those Sundays this summer:

July 10 (Apostolic): Hymn Sing, prepared by Erica Creed and members of the Choir
July 31 (Vacation): Laura Brown
Aug 7 (Vacation): Rev. Paul Jones

Rev. Frances will be on sabbatical Sept 1- Oct 31. The Rev. Ann Few will provide pulpit supply on most Sundays. More details to follow.

Summer Hours for Erica, Organist/Choir Director

July 7, 10am-12pm
July 14, 10am-12pm
July 27, 6-8pm

Choir will start back up on Wednesday, August 3.
