The Impact Of Domestic Violence

Domestic violence is prevalent in every community, and affects all people regardless of age, socio-economic status, sexual orientation, gender, race, religion, or nationality. Physical violence is often accompanied by emotionally abusive and controlling behavior as part of a much larger, systematic pattern of dominance and control. Domestic violence can result in physical injury, psychological trauma, and even death. The devastating consequences of domestic violence can cross generally and last a lifetime.

& 1 IN 4 MEN

HAVE BEEN VICTIMS OF PHYSICAL VIOLENCE BY AN INTIMATE PARTNER

Family is one of the most precious important earthly bonds we have. Family-Domestic & Violence should never be put together in the same sentence. Family denotes Nurture, Love And Safety- -Violence is the Polar opposite it can consist of Fear, Pain and Shame. We can no longer afford to look away. Statistics show that there is a uptick in deaths by violence and more grievous crimes in the victimized. Acid attacks being set on fire... no my friends we have to do more to help these beautiful souls live a life free of violence or the constant threat of violence. Family Violence encompasses all forms of family related violence, IPV- Intimate Partner Violence. Elder Abuse, Child Abuse and Sexual Abuse. Family Abuse comes in many forms, Physical, Mental, Emotional and Financial to name a few.
