

Brad Cummings

Author, Producer, Publisher

A former pastor for 20 years, Brad is the CEO of Shiloh Road Publishers, the publisher and General Editor of The Founders' Bible.

He co-authored and published the #1 NY Times bestseller, The Shack, which has sold over 22 million copies, was translated into 40+ different languages, selling the 1st million units out of his garage on $200 of marketing. He also produced "The Shack" movie (released by Lionsgate 2017) which grossed over $100M worldwide.

Brad is an author, screenwriter, film producer, publisher, editor & conference speaker; He runs Windblown Media and has co-authored a number of books: "A Man Like No Other—the illustrated life of Jesus", "The Butterfly Circus." He is working on a trilogy of novels entitled "The King and the Dragon," and is spearheading a number of publishing projects for The Crucible Work Group addressing the current medical crisis with a number of America's top doctors. Amnd freedom fighters. Brad has the wonderful privilege to be working on a book with Dr. Sherri Tenpenny.

He has a number of movies in various stages of development, "Proof of Heaven" with Lionsgate, "Mr. Douglass"—a biopic on the life of Frederick Douglass, "Protocol 7" a high stakes corporate thriller/whistler-blower drama with Andy Wakefield exposing the fraud and corruption within the BioTech world. "Above in All" about Jim Naismith and the invention of the sport of basketball to teach young men about God; and "Wonderful" about the intriguing life the famed healing revivalist Aimee Semple McPherson.

He did his undergraduate work in Film/TV Broadcasting at Pepperdine University (Malibu, CA) and received his Master of Divinity from Fuller Theological Seminary (Pasadena, CA). He and his lovely wife, Kelly, have 3 grown children, adore their young grandchildren and live in southern California.