

Martin Powell Bio

MARTIN POWELL was born in London, England. He grew up in Nottingham where he studied music—specializing in the clarinet, winning many prizes. At the Royal Academy of Music he won The Hawke's clarinet prize, the John Solomon Wind Soloist prize, was awarded the Leslie Martin Scholarship for Clarinet; winner of the Nicholas Blake prize, winner of a major award from the Ian Fleming Trust. A prize winner in the International Clarinet Congress Competition in London in 1984 and winning 'Best Musician' in the International Christian Arts for God Competition 2007.

He has given World Premieres of 24 pieces, both Peter Heron and Wilfred Josephs have written pieces for him.

Martin was the Pastor of the New Haven Fellowship in London.

Out of his study of the scriptures, the Lord began to give him fresh revelation about the subject of money.

Rick Joyner kindly endorsed his book 'Money Matters: in My Kingdom'. He said

'This is the best book I've ever read on secular or Christian finance.'

Martin founded the company 'Kingdom Talents' manufacturing Gold and Silver Talents. Approximately 1,000,000 Silver Talents have now been manufactured being shipped to all the continents of the world.

Returning to music in 2019 Martin formed a classical band 'Heaven Scent' to perform his Christian songs.

In 2022 Martin nearly died. He was taken into hospital, diagnosed as having diabetes, a brain bleed, a heart-attack, and a perforated appendix. Satan's plan to kill him did not work, as God has more for him to do. This attack has precipitated the writing of a new book on 'suffering for the Kingdom.'
