

Sandra Boneck Bio

Sandra Boneck mentors younger women, which has been her passion for more than thirty years. She also stands with her husband John to help love and pastor the 50+ers at MorningStar Fellowship Church. She is a captain in the MorningStar Freedom teams, which helps “heal the broken hearted” and “set captives free.” In addition, Sandy is on the Shine leadership team, the women’s ministry group, at MorningStar Fellowship Church. She is also a member of the MorningStar Fellowship of Ministries. She became a Knight of Malta in 2016. She and husband John reside in Tega Cay, South Carolina, and have five children and nine grandchildren.