Each year the Royal Family is given £510,000,000. A large portion of their income is generated from the people's money.

Additionally, our government spent £86,000,000 on the Royal Family, as part of the Sovereign Grant. At an average cost of £5 a meal, £86,000,000 could (according to estimates) feed 17,200,000 Brits, support various businesses and local areas.

Unlike you and me, they are exempt from Inheritance Tax and Capital Gains Tax.
