Whose Land Is It Anyway?

0.3% of Brits own and control 70% of land in the UK.

£466 billion

The combined wealth of half of the UK population

£466 billion

Wealth of the richest 50 families in the UK

Is it just that the land was stolen and these 50 families are still benefiting from that theft?

Is it just that a person is sentenced to live on a council or a private estate because of who their parents are?

Do you realise you have the power to opt out of this corrupt system and be the change you want to see?

You are invaluable.
You are the power.
