

KMT Performer Information & Code of Conduct

Qualifications: Auditions are open to everyone of all ages and abilities. Performers do not to be a Kirkwood employee, resident, or guest.

Attendance: Performers MUST attend the dress rehearsal on January 3rd to be eligible for the talent show.

Prizes: First, Runner-up, and Third Place Prizes will be awarded by audience votes/donations. Actual prizes TBD.

Respect: All participants must show respect to the audience, volunteers, and their fellow competitors.

Fairness: The talent show will be conducted in a fair and unbiased manner, with the judging panel ensuring that all participants are given equal opportunities to showcase their talents.

Honesty: Participants must be honest in their performances, and must not misrepresent themselves, their talents, or their achievements.

Professionalism: Participants must conduct themselves in a professional manner at all times, including during rehearsals, performances, and interactions with other participants and staff.

Time Management: Participants must adhere to the time limits provided for their performances, and must not exceed the allotted time.

Content Restrictions: Participants must not use any content that is offensive, discriminatory, or inappropriate, including language, gestures, or attire. This is a family friendly show.

Safety: Participants must take all necessary precautions to ensure their safety and the safety of others, including during rehearsals and performances.

Compliance: Participants must comply with all rules and regulations of the talent show, as well as any additional instructions provided by the organizers or staff.

Conduct: Participants must refrain from engaging in any behavior that is disruptive or harmful to the talent show or its participants.

Disqualification: Any participant found to be in violation of the code of conduct may be disqualified from the competition, and may also face other consequences as deemed appropriate by the organizers.

Questions: Any and all questions about this document can be sent to info@kirkwoodmountaintheater.com