We hope you have a beautiful night

Who is Worthy Australia?

Worthy Australia is a Perth based not-for-profit organisation, founded in 2020 by Perth Nurse Jennifer McGivern.

Our aim is to assist in rebuilding the lives of women and children who are experiencing, or under threat of experiencing homelessness due to domestic violence.

All of our operations and organisational roles are proudly completed by our incredible group of volunteers.

We work closely with frontline DV services to provide the necessary tangible items and support required for disadvantaged families to safely restart their lives with dignity.

“To break the cycle of homelessness for the women and children of Perth, who have been disadvantaged by domestic violence”

What is the Safe Haven Program?

Many women fleeing domestic violence relationships must leave in opportunistic moments, with nothing but the clothes on their back.

How do you start again when you have been left with nothing?

That's where our Safe Haven program comes in.

We turn empty houses into homes for women and children who are exiting domestic violence refuges or transitional housing.

We ensure the home is beautifully presented and well-equipped with everything from furniture, white goods, appliances, bedding, toys - everything down to the toothbrushes and body wash.

We let the families know that no matter their story, they are worthy of a dignified future.

“In seven days, we turn an empty house into a fully furnished home for women and children in domestic violence refuge”

What is the 16 Days in WA campaign?

The 16 Days in WA to Stop Violence Against Women initiative began in 2017, led by the McGowan Government and its first dedicated Minister for Prevention of Family and Domestic Violence, the Hon Simone McGurk MLA.

From 25 November, International Day for the Elimination of Violence Against Women, to 10 December, which is Human Rights Day, individuals and communities throughout the State have an opportunity to show their support for ending violence against women, including family, domestic and sexual violence.

In Western Australia, 16 Days in WA to Stop Violence Against Women aims to raise awareness; increase positive actions; and highlight organisations, agencies, communities and individuals working to end violence against women.

“This year’s campaign is themed around the tagline ‘Don’t be silent when you see violence’, encouraging bystanders to speak up and contribute to positive change towards the safety and respect of women in our community”.

Employii

Frustrated at seeing friends stuck in awful work situations (from being underpaid to sexually harassed), seeing the impact toxic workplaces had on their mental health - and given my background in HR and IR - I decided I needed to do something. I needed to provide an apolitical alternative to lawyers and other organisations that supported and educated employees on their HR rights, while instilling a sense of accountability within, ultimately enabling employees to take control and ownership of their careers and livelihood.

As every good project planner knows, you need to engage all key stakeholders to reach your optimum outcome. This is why we also help Employers become great workplaces, and educate HR professionals who fight for best practice.

We are Employii, and we're here to do HR differently.

-Ella Burke (Founder | HR & IR Specialist)

Employii's Purpose:

To create strong, supported and strategic careers in great workplaces, through an integrated approach to Human Resources.

Based in the small wheatbelt town of Mogumber, Pauline is an strong advocate for the rural lifestyle. Farming a grain & livestock property with her husband Dave and working off farm as the regional representative for Devings Fine Foods, Pauline has seen the benefits regional WA can offer. While smaller populations mean community members often fill multiple volunteer roles, the social benefits these opportunities provide are enormous.

Actively contributing to the community makes you feel part of something bigger than yourself & looking after each other is ingrained in country towns.

Three close events lead to Pauline's Silver Sponsorship of Worthy Australia's Saving Sixteen event.

- Watching the miniseries Maid, which left a sinking feeling in her stomach.
  - Hearing the Federal Government's announcement of an 'escaping domestic violence payment'.
- Being inspired by another Victoria Plains local, Jacqui Corless Crowther, who shared her recent involvement with Worthy Australia.

It's easy to be moved by a TV series, but actually contributing, that's what the world needs more of.

Jemaine Finlay

Jemaine is a health & Happiness coach empowering women to live a life that is more than just surviving, and truly thrive. Stepping into the wellness space 7 years ago, she pivoted in women's empowerment as a personal trainer, and PCOS & fertility coach, before completing her degree in naturopathy. In the past 12 months Jemaine has exploded in the transformation space, helping the modern woman break free from diet culture, insecurity, self sabotage, and self loathing; and step into unshakable confidence and freedom in living a life they love. Naturopath, NLP practitioner, heartmath practitioner and personal development junkie Jemaine puts holistic into empowerment through her stage presence, online courses, and coaching helping women shine in physical, mental emotional and spiritual wellness.

Courtney Wilder

Courtney of Seeker Wilder is an intuitive business coach, business astrologist, podcast host, part-mermaid, poetry lover, mumma, bestie to many, wife, heart-led soul-centred boss babe, and just a regular old human being. She uplifts and empowers business owners to reconnect with their souls calling, and make aligned decisions, creating abundance and ease.

Courtney will share with us, her personal journey of discovering her self-worth and self-empowerment, and sharing insights into how we can awaken our legacy within.

Courtney's work empowers others to reconnect with themselves, and do the work to realign, expand, and overcome.

Renaë Carroll

What makes you a 'survivor' and a self love ambassador?

Well that certainly is a brave story to tell, and one that Renaë Carroll from @glo_younger will be sharing at our upcoming fundraiser Saving Sixteen!

Renaë will be sharing insights of the self love journey that has helped [and is still helping] her heal from her domestic violence experience. Hear all about the simple and not so simple things that have triggered different stages of her journey.. As if peeling back the bitter layers of an onion, healing one wound at a time...

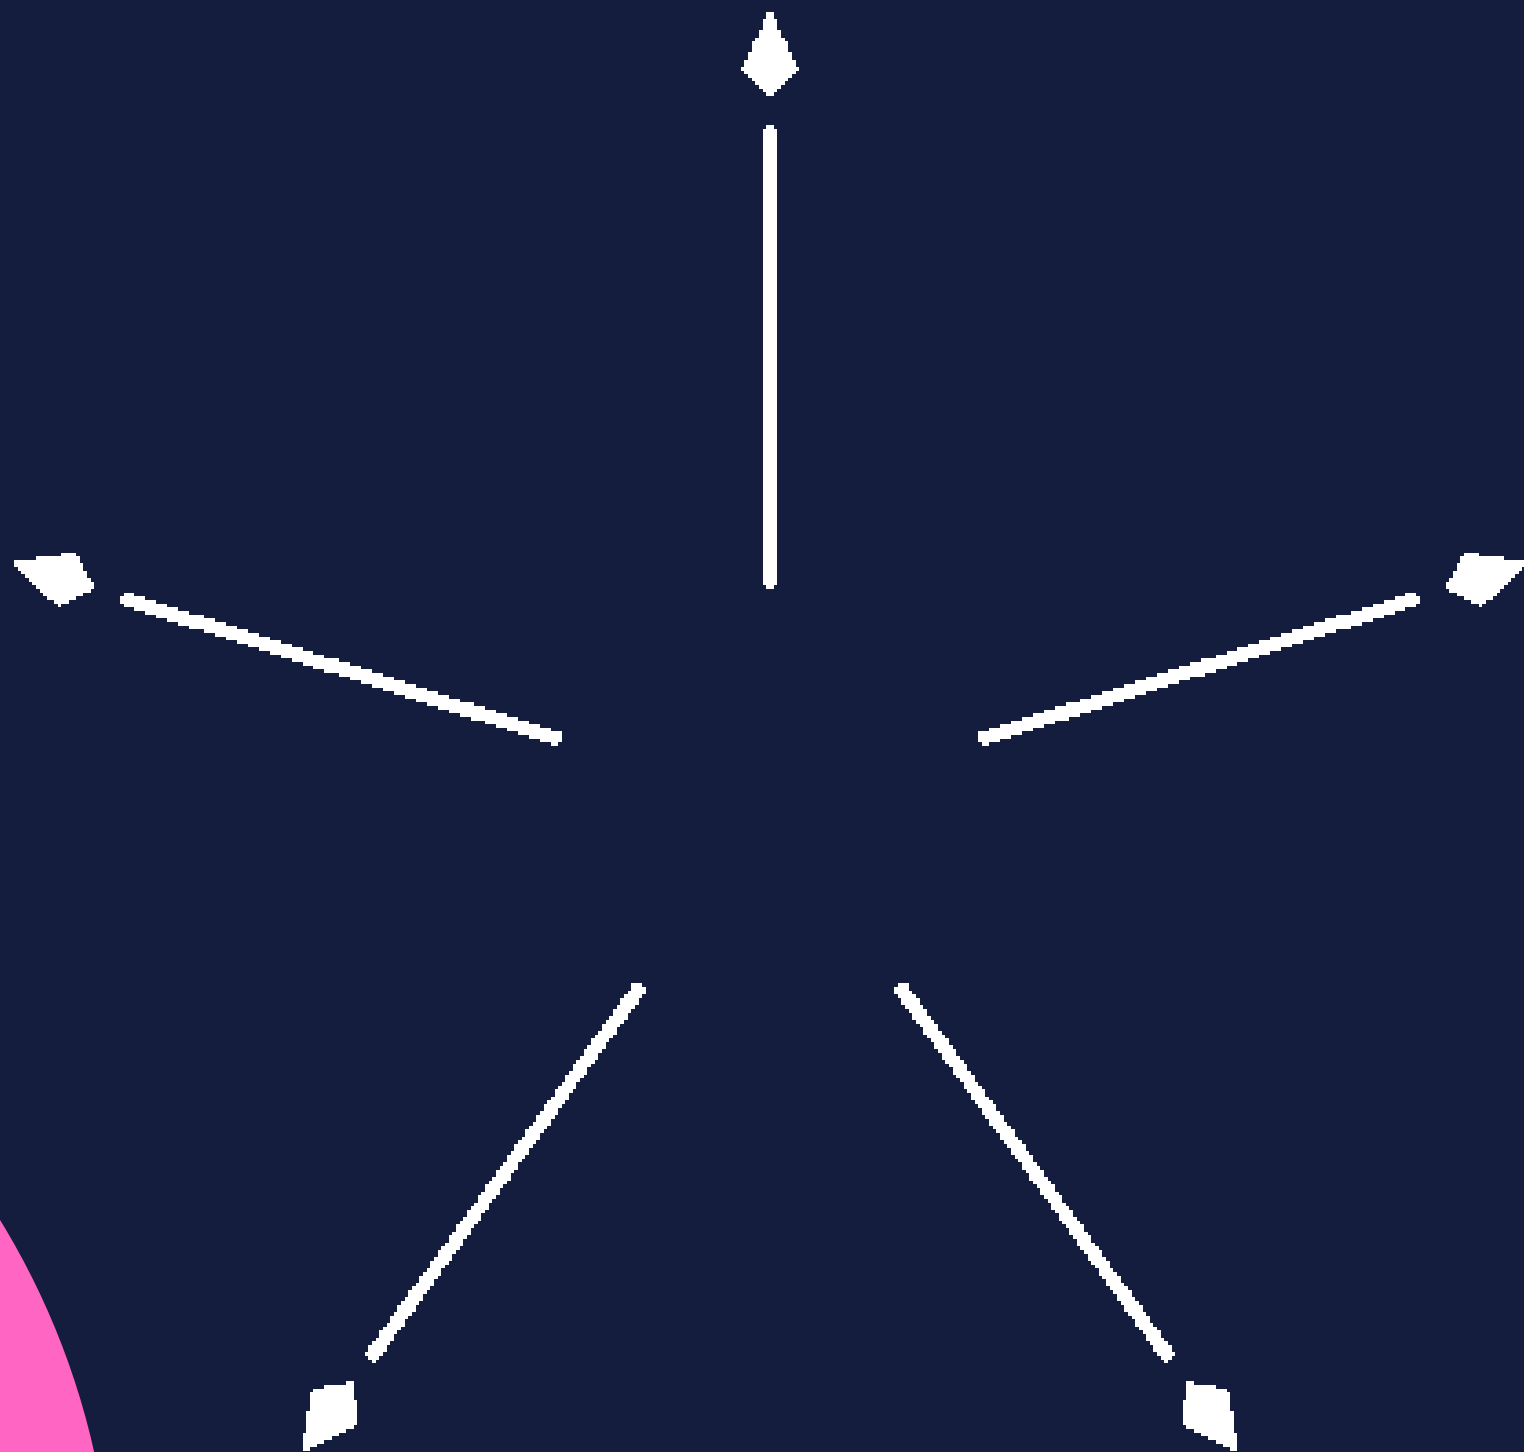

We can't wait to hear Renee's brave & empowering story. We are honoured that she has chosen our Worthy Australia "Saving Sixteen" fundraising event to share her soul.

When one woman tells her story, she strengthens and encourages others to tell theirs.
