CONSTITUTION
of the
AMERICAN LEGION AUXILIARY
DEPARTMENT OF WASHINGTON

PREAMBLE

For God and Country, we associate ourselves together for the following purposes:
To uphold and defend the Constitution of the United States of America; to maintain law and order; to foster and perpetuate a one-hundred percent Americanism; to preserve the memories and incidents of our associations in all wars; to inculcate a sense of individual obligation to the community, state, and nation; to combat the autocracy of both the classes and the masses; to make right the master of might; to promote peace and goodwill on earth; to safeguard and transmit to posterity the principles of justice, freedom, and democracy; to participate in and contribute to the accomplishment of the aims and purposes of the American Legion; to consecrate and sanctify our association by our devotion to mutual helpfulness.

ARTICLE I
NAME

Section 1.

The name of the organization shall be the AMERICAN LEGION AUXILIARY DEPARTMENT OF WASHINGTON.

Section 2.

The Headquarters of The American Legion Auxiliary Department of Washington shall be maintained in the same city as the Headquarters of the American Legion.

ARTICLE II
NATURE

Section 1.

The American Legion Auxiliary Department of Washington is a civilian patriotic service organization that supports the mission of The American Legion.

Section 2.

American Legion Auxiliary Department of Washington shall be absolutely non-political and shall not be used for the dissemination of partisan principles nor the promotion of the candidacy of any person seeking public office or preferment.

ARTICLE III
ELIGIBILITY

Section 1.

Eligibility for membership in the American Legion Auxiliary, Department of Washington is determined by The American Legion. The eligibility requirements from The American Legion governing documents shall be provided as a footnote to this Constitution for information purposes and shall be updated as appropriate. <sup>1</sup>

Section 2.

There shall be two (2) classes of membership, Senior and Junior.

(a) Senior membership shall be comprised of members aged eighteen (18) and older; provided, however, a member eligible under Section 1 of this article and who is under the age of eighteen years and married shall be classified as a Senior Member.

(b) Junior membership shall be comprised of members under the age of eighteen (18) years whose activities shall be supervised by the Senior membership. Upon reaching the age of eighteen years, Junior members shall automatically be admitted into Senior membership with full privileges.

(c) Dues of both classes shall be paid annually or for life.

- (1) Grandmothers, mothers, sisters, spouses, and direct and adopted female descendants of members of The American Legion; and
- (2) Grandmothers, mothers, sisters, spouses and direct and adopted female descendants of all men and women who served in either of the following periods: April 6, 1917 to November 11, 1918 and any time after December 7, 1941 who being a citizen of the United States at the time of their entry therein served on active duty in the Armed Forces of any of the governments associated with the United States during either eligibility periods and died in the line of duty or after honorable discharge; and
- (3) Grandmothers, mothers, sisters, spouses, and direct and adopted female descendants of all men and women who were in the Armed Forces of the United States during either of the following periods: April 6, 1917, to November 11, 1918; and any time after December 7, 1941, who served on active duty in the Armed Forces of the United States during either eligibility periods and died in the line of duty or after honorable discharge; and
- (4) To those women who of their own right are eligible for membership in The American Legion.

ARTICLE IV

DEPARTMENT OFFICERS

Section 1.

(a) The Department Convention shall annually elect the following officers:

Department President
Department 1st Vice President
Department 2nd Vice President
Department Historian
Department Chaplain

And elect biennial the National Executive Committeeperson and the Alternate National Executive Committeeperson.

(b) Such officers shall serve until the adjournment of the succeeding Department Convention, or until their successors are duly chosen, except the National Executive Committeeperson and Alternate National Executive Committeeperson.

(c) The National Executive Committeeperson and Alternate National Executive Committeeperson shall serve for two years, and for no more than two consecutive elected terms.

(d) Candidates for all Department Offices should have the official endorsement of their Unit.

Section 2.

(a) In the event of a vacancy occurring in the office of Department President by death or resignation, the 1st Vice President shall automatically succeed to the office of Department President, Pro Tem. Except if the term is for at least three-fourths of the Auxiliary year, they shall assume the title of the office in their own right. If the service is Pro Tem, they may at the end of that term become a candidate for the office in their own right.

(b) In the event of such succession, The 1st Vice President shall be filled by appointment from among the members of the Department Executive Committee as Pro Tem for that term only.

(c) Vacancies in any other Department Office occurring during the year shall be filled by the vote of the Department Executive Committee, the Department President to immediately summon or poll Executive Committee for the election of a successor, providing at least three fourths of the term remain. If less than three fourths, the vacancy will be filled by appointment and for the balance of the term only.

(d) In the case of a vacancy in the office of the National Executive Committeeperson the Alternate National Executive Committeeperson will assume the duties until convention.

ARTICLE V
DEPARTMENT EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

Section 1.

(a) There shall be a Department Executive Committee, which shall consist of:

- Department President
- Department 1st Vice President
- Department 2nd Vice President
- Department Historian
- Department Chaplain

- District Presidents of each Legion District in the State of Washington
- National Executive Committeeperson
- Department Secretary (without vote)
- Department Treasurer (without vote) or
- Department Secretary/Treasurer without vote
- Past Department Presidents (without vote) for life when in good standing within their unit.

(b) No Past Department President will receive monetary benefits as a member of the Department Executive Committee unless otherwise qualified as a chair or officer as specified in Standing Rules Article II Section 6(a) and (b)

(c) The Department Secretary and Department Treasurer shall be removed from their position only by two-thirds vote of the entire Executive Committee, wherein the employee shall be given an opportunity to present their case. The Executive Committee meeting at which this matter is discussed shall be a closed executive session in which only members of the Executive Committee are present. When feasible, prior to the meeting, the Department President shall announce the reason for the meeting and will invite any Auxiliary member with pertinent information to submit it in a written, signed document. Nonmembers of the Executive Committee shall be invited to attend a portion of the meeting to present testimony and facts if they will submit a written statement.

(d) Applicants for Department Secretary or Department Treasurer shall be interviewed by the Department President, and the Department Vice President/s who shall make recommendations for employment to the Department Executive Committee for action. In the event one or both of these officers are unavailable to do an interview, the Department President can appoint a member or members to temporarily fill this committee for a specific interviewing period.

ARTICLE VI
DEPARTMENT CONVENTION

Section 1.

(a) The Legislative body of the organization shall be a Department Convention to be held annually, the time and place to coincide with sites selected by The American Legion and accepted by the Department Executive Committee.

(b) The opening meeting shall be counted the first day of the convention.

(c) A rotating Convention Liaison Committee to work with the American Legion Convention Commission be established consisting of one (1) member from each of the convention sites in the order in which those conventions will be held. After the initial committee of three (3) is established, the Department President will annually appoint a member from the newest chosen site.

(d) The names of this Liaison Committee are to be forwarded to the Legion Commission immediately following the close of the first meeting of the newly elected Auxiliary Executive Committee.

Section 2.

The Annual Department Convention shall be composed of delegates and alternates to be elected by each Auxiliary Unit in good standing; each Unit to be entitled to two (2) delegates and two (2) alternates; and one (1) additional delegate and one (1) additional alternate for each one hundred (100) paid-up memberships, or major fraction thereof, provided, however that no Unit shall be entitled to be represented unless it has at least ten (10) senior members whose Department and National dues for the current year have been paid.

Section 3.

When an application for Charter has been received and approved by Department, and forwarded to National for acceptance, representatives of that Unit will be allowed voting privileges at the Department Convention, although their Charter has not been received.

Section 4.

(a) The delegates and alternates to the Department Convention shall be chosen by majority vote of the members of the Unit who are present at a meeting designated for that purpose. Any Unit not represented by legally elected delegates or alternates shall lose its vote.

(b) These delegates and alternates to be certified in writing, into the Department Office, at least ten (10) days prior to the Department Convention or when necessary and circumstances warrant, these delegates may be certified by presenting a credential slip duly signed by a Unit Officer or by the District President who can verify their election.

(c) Unit delegates and/or alternates must be certified, registered, and in attendance, to qualify for voting privileges.

Section 5.

All Past Department Presidents and voting members of the Department Executive Committee shall be delegates-at-large at the annual Department Convention.

Section 6.

A quorum for the transaction of business at Department Convention shall be a majority of those Units registered as in attendance, irrespective as to whether some may have left.

Section 7.

All resolutions presented at Convention shall be from a Unit in good standing, signed by the Unit President and one (1) officer, or if by an individual member, shall be in writing, signed by two members in good standing, each of whom shall be a voting member of the Convention.

ARTICLE VII
AMENDMENTS

Section 1.

This Constitution may be amended in the following manner:

(a) By submitting a copy of the proposed amendment as a resolution by a unit in good standing, signed by the Unit President and one (1) officer, to the Department Secretary. They shall mail one copy of the proposed amendment to each local Unit in the Department and to the members of the Department Executive Committee, at least thirty days prior to the annual Department Convention; and a two-thirds vote shall be necessary for the adoption of any amendment.

(b) Necessary amendments proposed after distribution or revision as shown in Section I(a), may be submitted by a Unit in good standing and signed by the Unit President and one (1) officer or if by individual members, signed by two members in good standing, each of whom shall be a voting member of the Convention. They may be adopted by two-thirds vote of the delegation at any Department Convention provided they have been read at one meeting of the session prior to taking action.

(c) This Constitution may further be amended at a regular meeting of the Department Convention by a unanimous vote of the delegates present. Amendments shall, unless otherwise stated, become operative upon adoption.

(d) Mandates from the National Organization shall automatically be made a part of this Constitution.

ARTICLE VIII
PARLIAMENTARY AUTHORITY

The American Legion Auxiliary Department of Washington shall be governed by the Department Constitution, Bylaws, and Standing Rules in all cases in which they are applicable and in which they are not inconsistent with the National Constitution, Bylaws, and Standing Rules and Special Rules and lastly by the current edition of Robert's Rules of Order, Newly Revised.

BYLAWS
AMERICAN LEGION AUXILIARY
DEPARTMENT OF WASHINGTON

ORGANIZATION

Section 1.

The American Legion Auxiliary Department of Washington shall be organized into Areas and Districts to conform to those set by The American Legion and these in turn into units.

Section 2.

(a) Any member desiring to be a candidate for a Department Office should be endorsed by their Unit at a regular Unit meeting, or at a special meeting called for that purpose. (a quorum being present).

(b) In case one of these Department Offices should be without an endorsed candidate, the Department Executive Committee shall, at the second meeting of the Department Convention, name a candidate or candidates upon recommendation of a District caucus called for that purpose.

Section 3.

(a) The election of Department Officers shall be by ballot and held at a meeting following the nominations and prior to the closing of Convention.

(b) When there is only one candidate for an office, the chair may declare that candidate elected, provided, they have asked if there are any objections: upon hearing none, the candidate is declared elected at that meeting,

- (c) When there is more than one candidate for office, the election shall be by ballot and held at a meeting following nomination and prior to closing of convention. The nominees receiving a majority of all votes cast for the respective offices shall be declared elected. Such officers shall take office immediately upon installation and shall serve until their successors are duly chosen and qualified. However, the outgoing President shall be allowed to finish all financial business pertaining to her/his year, by the closing date of Department books July 31st.
- (d) The National Executive Committeeperson, the Alternate National Executive Committeeperson shall serve for a 2-year term and a maximum of two (2) consecutive terms. The Department President, Past Department Presidents and Department Vice Presidents may run for a second term with endorsement each year and be duly elected at the department convention. The Department Chaplain, and the Department Historian may be reelected for a maximum of two (2) consecutive years upon submission of a new Unit endorsement each year and then duly elected at the Department Convention. Thereafter he/she must be off for at least one year before running for the position again. No executive committee member shall hold more than one office on the executive committee at a time.
- (e) If there are more than two nominees, and a majority of votes is not reached, on a succeeding ballot, the candidate receiving the lowest number of votes shall, if they desire, be allowed to withdraw, and have their name marked off the ballot, this process being used until a clear majority is reached or there are only two candidates remaining on the final ballot. No candidate may withdraw in favor of another. Balloting will continue between the two remaining candidates until a clear majority has been reached.

Section 4.

- (a) The ballot vote shall be cast in a room apart from the Department Convention. The voting room shall contain a locked ballot box and register of the Units and a register of the delegates from each Unit.
- (b) Each Unit delegate and delegate-at-large present at the Convention shall cast their own ballot.
- (c) No ballot shall be cast by any Unit delegate or delegate-at-large whose registration fee has not been paid.
- (d) All delegates and alternates shall be elected at a Unit meeting and certified in writing to the Department Office at least ten (10) days before the Annual Department Convention or when necessary and circumstances warrant, these delegates may be certified by presenting a credential slip duly signed by a Unit Officer or by the District President who can verify their election.
- (e) A delegate-at-large may also be elected as delegate from their Unit. They shall vote either as a delegate-at-large, or as a delegate from their Unit. No member is entitled to more than one vote.
- (f) Unit delegates and/or alternates must be certified, registered, and in attendance to qualify for voting privileges.

Section 5.

(a) The Department President shall, with the approval of the Department Executive Committee appoint a Committee on Elections, who shall serve in the voting room; this committee shall consist of two (2) tellers, two (2) inspectors and the Credentials Chair.

(b) The Department Secretary shall be authorized to attend to the preparation of the ballots and assist in setting up the voting room.

(c) The Chair of Tellers shall provide the necessary facilities for the casting and counting of the votes with accuracy and dispatch; maintain order, quiet in the polling room, and enforce the rules governing the election.

(d) The Committee on Credentials shall furnish to the Chair of the Tellers, not less than two (2) hours before the opening of the polling room, a register of the Units of the Department arranged in numerical order with the names of the accredited delegates from each of these Units.

(e) The Tellers in charge of the register shall check the number of the Unit and the name or names of the delegate or delegates voting from the list in the register. The teller in charge of the ballot box shall place their official mark upon the back of each ballot and the voter shall then deposit the ballot in the ballot box.

(f) The Chair of the Credentials Committee shall report to the Convention the accuracy of the count. Their final report shall constitute the voting strength. The Chair of the Tellers shall report to the Convention the result of the ballot upon the completion of the count.

Section 6.

(a) The delegates and alternates to the National Convention shall be nominated and elected following the election of Department Officers. The Department shall pay registration fees for the delegates and alternates to the National Convention. Any member not fulfilling their obligations at National Convention shall reimburse the registration fee to the American Legion Auxiliary, Department of Washington.

(b) Delegates to the National Convention shall be elected in the following manner: Lots shall be drawn by District Presidents, who can only nominate a member of their District as a delegate/alternate to the National Convention, except those Districts shall pass which have the outgoing President and the incoming President now specified as the first and the second delegate, respectively, in Section 8 (a) of the Department Bylaws. If a District has no member who is definitely planning to attend the entire National Convention, the District President passes and the Districts having delegates specified in the Department Bylaws then draw lots until the total number of delegates has been chosen. Alternates shall be chosen in the same manner. However, in the event the alternate list is not complete, the Department President shall name alternates to fill the vacancies. A vacancy in the delegation shall be filled by the first alternate, and then the second alternate, etc. The District to which the Secretary belongs shall not be penalized in the election of delegates to the National Convention.

Section 7.

(a) The outgoing Department President shall, at the Department Convention, be the first delegate to the National Convention, and shall serve as Chairman of the delegation, the incoming Department President, shall be the second delegate.

(b) Department shall pay from the General Fund airfare, ground transportation and up to seven (7) days lodging. Shared lodging will be based on each occupant's percentage of the room, payable to the Department. The Chairman of the delegation shall handle the National States Dinner tickets.

(c) In the event that at National Convention there are vacancies in the duly elected delegation, the Chair of the delegation, shall have power to name as delegates members of the Department of Washington, in good standing, who are in attendance at the National Convention.

Section 8.

(a) Any member desiring to be a candidate for a National Office should first receive the endorsement of their own Unit. This must be forwarded to the Department President for their information at least thirty (30) days prior to the Department Convention. The Department President must present this endorsement to the Department Executive Committee for their information and to the Convention for vote.

(b) Any member desiring to be a candidate for Western Division National Vice-President should first receive the endorsement of their own Unit. This must be forwarded to the Department President for their information at least thirty (30) days prior to the Department Convention. The Department President must present this endorsement to the Department Executive Committee for their information and place it on file at the Department Office. It must be brought to the Convention for a vote three (3) years prior to the eligibility of the Department of Washington for the office.

Section 9.

(a) There shall be one District President and one District Vice President for each Legion District in the State of Washington, and they shall be elected by the Units comprising the District at the time of the District Spring Conference, by a ballot vote, or roll call of the Units. Each Unit will cast one vote, by a duly elected and certified delegate or alternate.

(b) The nominee receiving the majority of all votes cast for the respective office shall be declared elected. When there is only one candidate for an office, the chair may declare that candidate elected, provided they have asked if there are any objections; upon hearing none, the candidate is declared elected that day.

(c) If a Unit delegate or alternate is not present at the District Spring Conference, any member of the Unit, in good standing, and holding the Unit's credentials, may cast the Unit's vote; the results to be announced by the District President and submitted in writing to the Department Secretary for ratification by the Annual Department Convention. The District President and District Vice President elect will take office immediately upon adjournment of the next Department Convention following their election. The District Vice President will be authorized to represent the District President in all matters pertaining to their District whenever the District President is not available.

(d) The District Presidents and District Vice Presidents are to be elected for one year with the option of serving multiple times. In the event of a vacancy in the office of District President, the District Vice President shall become District President and shall assume the duties and authority of the office. If there is no District President or Vice President, then such vacancy shall be filled by a successor from the District appointed by the Department President.

ARTICLE VII

UNIT ORGANIZATION

Section 1.

Those who desire to form an Auxiliary Unit in this Department shall make application for a Charter to the President of the American Legion Auxiliary Department of Washington; provided, however, that the application must first be duly approved by the Post to which the Unit is to be attached. The Charter will be issued by the National President and the National Secretary, upon receipt of the application properly executed, with handwritten signatures on the original copy (white sheet) and approved by the Department President or by the Department Executive Committee. (Refer to Unit Handbook for further details).

Section 2.

Each Unit of the American Legion Auxiliary Department of Washington shall be the judge of its own membership, subject to the restrictions of the Constitution and Bylaws, except that no person who is a member of an organization which has for its aim the overthrow of the United States Government by force or violence, or who subscribes to the principles of any group opposed to our form of government, shall be eligible to become or remain a member of the American Legion Auxiliary Department of Washington.

Section 3.

- (a) Each Unit and District of the American Legion Auxiliary, Department of Washington, may choose to include the use of electronic means for business meetings via video or teleconferencing.
- (b) Elections must be held at an in-person meeting. Mail-in ballots, proxies, absentee ballots, and digital voting are not allowed.

Section 4.

The minimum Senior Membership to charter an Auxiliary Unit shall be ten (10). A Unit's charter cannot be cancelled solely for membership dropping below ten (10) senior members.

Section 5.

- (a) The Unit Officers shall be as follows:

- President
- First Vice President
- Second Vice President
- Secretary
- Treasurer or Secretary/Treasurer
- Historian
- Chaplain
- Sergeant -at-Arms

And/or such Officers as may be deemed necessary by the Unit. All officers shall be elected annually by a majority vote of the members present at a meeting designated for that purpose. Unit Officers shall be installed immediately following their election or as soon thereafter as possible, and shall assume the office upon close of the Department Convention.

- (b) It is recommended that newly elected Unit Officers should refer to their parts as they appear in the Manual of Ceremonies and Unit Handbook.

- (c) All books and records of the Unit Officers shall be turned over to the new Officers immediately upon closing of the Department convention.

Section 6.

Each Unit shall adopt the Department Constitution and Bylaws of the American Legion

Auxiliary and shall adopt the Unit Bylaws prepared on uniform outline authorized by Department. They may adopt local standing rules.

Section 7.

For violation by a member of the Auxiliary of any of the provisions of the Department, National or Unit Constitution and Bylaws, each Unit Executive Committee shall have authority, after hearing, to recommend to the Unit the expulsion or suspension of such member. Any member suspended shall have the right to appeal to the Department Executive Committee by giving the Committee notice within thirty (30) days of such determination.

NOTE:

- (1) Since expulsion of a member from a Unit automatically expels them from the Auxiliary, since it is only through a Unit that a person can belong to the Auxiliary, such action should not be taken by any Unit unless the reasons are such as to justify expulsion from any Unit of the entire organization.
- (2) Names of members who are expelled, together with statements of facts substantiating the expulsion charges and copies of all proceedings, shall be reported to Department Headquarters, thence to National Headquarters, where a record shall be kept.

Section 8.

(a) Any member who, having surrendered their membership, desires to be reinstated, shall make application and join as a new member.

(b) No person may, at any time, be a member of more than one Unit.

(c) Any member in good standing in a Unit shall be entitled to transfer to another Unit.

(d) Any member in good standing wishing to transfer to another Unit must present to the new Unit their current membership card. Upon acceptance of the transfer by the new Unit, the Unit Officer will complete the transfer section on the Member Data Form. The new Unit Officer and member must sign and date the Member Data Form to be valid. The member shall then be entitled to active membership in said Unit. No dues shall be transferred.

(e) A Unit member may withdraw providing their current dues are fully paid. Upon withdrawal, however, they shall be prohibited from joining another Unit as a new member during the remainder of the current year for which said dues are paid. In the event a member wishes to remove their membership from one Unit to another during the current year, it shall be done by transfer and not by withdrawal. Upon the receipt of a transfer application, the Department Office shall provide the new Unit with a copy of the member's original application for membership, if available and upon request.

FINANCE

Section 1.

The revenue of the American Legion Auxiliary Department of Washington shall be derived from annual membership dues in a per capita amount established by the Department Convention delegates, and from such other sources as may be approved by the Department Executive Committee. Modification to the Department per capita dues for members shall require a two-thirds vote in the affirmative by the Department Convention delegates. Dues shall be payable in amounts as provided in the Standing Rules. A member's status is dependent upon the timely payment of dues as provided in the Standing Rules.

Section 2. UNIT

ARTICLE IX

DISCIPLINE

Section 1.

The Department Executive Committee shall review and consider complaints concerning its members or officers and Units of Auxiliary when complaints relate to the violation of the National and Department Constitution, Bylaws or Regulations.

Section 2.

For such violation by any Department Officer of the Auxiliary, the Department Executive Committee may, after hearing, suspend or expel the officer.

Section 3.

The Department Executive Committee, after notice and a hearing, may recommend to the National Executive Committee the suspension or revocation of the Charter of a Unit which violates this Constitution, or the National Constitution of the American Legion Auxiliary; or which fails adequately to discipline any of its members for such violations, may provide for the government and administration of Units during such suspension or upon revocation.

Section 4.

Any Unit whose Charter has been revoked may appeal to the Department Convention for the purpose of obtaining a reconsideration of the revocation of its Charter, which petition shall be in writing and signed by at least fifty (50) percent of the members of the Unit.

Section 5.

When it becomes necessary for a Unit to voluntarily relinquish its charter, a written notice must be sent to each senior member in good standing, calling them to a meeting to consider the matter. Upon a majority vote of those present, a Charter may be relinquished to the Department. All materials bearing the Emblem of the American Legion Auxiliary Department of Washington are to be forwarded immediately to the Department Headquarters. All monies not expended to pay outstanding accounts, or allotted to accepted Department or Unit Programs, must be forwarded to the Department Secretary. The District President is assigned the duty of overseeing the delivery of materials and funds to the Department Office.

Section 6.

Any individual member or Department Officer or Unit desiring legal opinion from the National Judge Advocate of the American Legion must submit such request in writing to the National Secretary with a request for an opinion by the Judge Advocate. This request must go through the Department Secretary or Department President. (National mandate).
