

The Brooksville Sr. FFA Alumni and Friends, Brooksville Main Street, and The Brooksville Blueberry Festival thank you for being a vendor at the 2022 Brooksville Blueberry Festival. Please carefully read the following rules necessary for vendors to participate in the festival. Not following the rules will ban you from future events.

No vendor may switch products or sell products that are not listed on the application.

This event will be held rain or shine. This is an outdoor event with possible uneven terrain, inclement weather and/or wind gusts.

Vehicles (cars, trucks, golf carts) are not part of the vendor space. Vehicles must enter the setup area to drop off tents and supplies and immediately relocate the vehicle to park in the vendors parking behind City Hall. Entrances on W Ft. Dade Ave. and Howell Ave. No vehicles will be permitted on event grounds after the setup period ends. This will be strictly enforced.

You will be issued one (1) parking pass at check in. Vendor parking is behind City Hall with entrances on Howell St. and W. Ft. Dade Ave. If you have people working your booth, they will have to find on street parking. Keep the pass in the windshield of your vehicle.

Attached is a map of your location in the festival and your setup time. Please adhere to the times. No entry will be allowed before your designated time. If you are unable to set up Friday night, you can set up Saturday morning before 7:00 a.m. This will be strictly enforced. Go directly to your designated street and check in with the volunteer. If you do not like the space assigned to you, do not set up. Move your vehicle to the vendor parking lot and when everyone else is set up, we will try to accommodate you. There is no guarantee we can provide a better space than the one assigned to you. If you requested electricity, your designated space depends on where the generators are located.

Vendor Trash-It is your responsibility to take your trash to the designated area for pickup. You will be shown this area upon setup.

Sunday night, no vehicles will be allowed for dismantling until after 6 p.m. AND entrance for dismantling are authorized by a Festival Volunteer.

You will be asked to show proof of insurance or sign a waiver.

IF YOU HAVE ANY QUESTIONS OR CONCERNS, PLEASE CONTACT BETSY AHRENS, 703.798.1995, VENDOR COORDINATOR BEFORE YOUR SETUP TO AVOID ANY CONFUSION THE NIGHT OF.
