Good Morning Region 4 GMO Presidents,

In January 2014, TDF President Beth Baumert, gave a talk at the USDF/USEF Young Rider Graduate Program held in Wellington, FL. The attached article is the substance of her talk, which discusses what happens to money- personal money and TDF money. Beth couldn't help but put herself in the young riders' shoes and think of what she wishes someone had told her when she was their age. We would love for you to share this enlightening article with your members.

Lastly, you might remember that Olympian and Vice Chairman of The Dressage Foundation's Board, Michael Poulin, is generously donating a two day clinic to the state that raises the most new donations for TDF by the end of 2014. For more details, please see our online press release and feel free to share with your membership!

Please contact us if you have any questions and have a great day.

Jane Fucinaro

Let's Talk about Financial Well Being

By Beth Baumert, President & CEO of The Dressage Foundation

This article is based on the talk given at the USDF/USEF Young Rider Graduate Program held in January 2014 in Wellington, Florida. Whereas TDF President, Beth Baumert wanted to talk about The Dressage Foundation grants available to young people, she couldn't help but put herself in their shoes and think of what she wishes someone had told her when she was their age. Here is the substance of her talk on what happens to money--personal money and TDF money.

Money moves. It's the nature of money. If I give you $10, how long will you have it? You might buy groceries with it, or you might add it to other money so you can pay your rent. You might add it to funds with which you plan to buy a car some day. You might give it to someone who needs it more than you. It's hard to make money stop moving. You earn it and then you spend it. (Notice the sequence. You don't spend it and then earn it. You earn it first and then spend it.)

People who are financially responsible " earmark " money that they earn. That is, they categorize expenditures into what you might call " buckets " of money. I like to call them buckets because it sounds like you have a lot of money even when you don't at first.

- One bucket of money is for your necessary, fixed expenses. That might include your rent, your groceries, your phone-internet bill, fuel for your car, insurance, taxes and other expenditures that you consider necessary.
- One bucket of money is to save for something important. Maybe you know your car may only last two more years so you're saving for the car you will need in the future.
- For developing professional riders, a training program is another necessary expense. You need to put aside some funds for your training.
- One bucket of money is to give away to a cause that you're passionate about. The universe gives to those who give. I'm not sure how that works, but I'm old enough to know that it works. It's a Law of the Universe. I'm not saying you should give to TDF (although that would be very nice), but you should give to some cause that's greater than you. Don't make the mistake of thinking that you can't give enough to make a difference because even if you start out by giving away $25 a year, that's something. That means you have designated a bucket--even though it may be small--of money to give away for a cause that's greater than yourself.
- One bucket of money should be for you to save forever for your retirement. It seems ridiculous to think of that now, but later I will give you a very compelling reason to start now. My favorite quote about personal finances came from a young person who said, "If I'm financially fine right now, and I'm fine for the future, I figure I'm totally fine." That means that from the very beginning, you save for your future; you pay yourself by starting to save when you're very young. That's especially important if you're going to pursue a career that is financially challenging. Training horses definitely falls into that category, so I want to talk about saving for your future again later.

Now I want to talk a little bit about The Dressage Foundation (TDF). TDF is, financially, like a bank. Donations come in from people who want to support the sport of dressage. Then TDF invests that money in several different ways:

- TDF investment advisors invest the funds in the traditional way: In stocks of solid, respectable companies, in bonds and in CDs.
- TDF awards prizes and grants to worthy recipients, and that's an investment too. For example, when Catherine Chamberlain (AZ) was chosen for the International Dream Program (formerly called Olympic Dream) in 2012, TDF made a good investment because when Catherine came back, she spread the word about what she learned; she rode better and taught better than she would have if she hadn't gone on that trip to Europe. As a bonus, Catherine has done fundraisers for TDF, and she has given back financially too!

Whereas TDF is, financially, like a bank, emotionally, it's made up of a group of people like you who are passionate about dressage. We are a little army of donors that seek to "up the game" for riders at all levels. That is, we have grants for young riders, graduate young riders, adult amateurs, breeders, judges, instructors and high performance riders. We want to, bit by bit, change the game across the board.

Now, I've already mentioned how easy it is to spend money. TDF is the same. It's really fun to give money away, but those awards depend on donors--big donors and small donors. The big donors of TDF are like the generals, colonels and majors of our little army. They are directly responsible for the grants that TDF is able to award. Some of them are: Carol Lavell, her father Gordon Cadwgan, Maryal Barnett, Renee Isler, Ralph Dreitzler, Anne Ramsay, the Boomer family, Violet Hopkins and others. They are directly responsible for the grants that TDF awards--which was nearly $200,000 last year. These funds that are given as grants and awards are "restricted," which means they can not be used to pay ordinary TDF operating expenses. Restricted funds are reserved for grant-giving.

The smaller donors, who are the captains, lieutenants and foot soldiers in our little army are indispensable because they implement the ideas of our generals, colonels and majors. Some of them add to the restricted funds that are given as awards, but they also help pay for TDF's operating expenses. Some of the major donors help with operating expenses too. Just as you, in your personal finances, have necessary expenses, the TDF office has printing, mailing, paying our extraordinary staff and professional advisors. The donors who help pay the expenses of operating TDF are extraordinarily important because, without them, we couldn't survive.

Now to get back to your personal expenses: Financial well being is within the reach of almost everyone, but it has to do with the buckets of money for saving and for giving away. The one for giving is from-your-heart generosity, and the one for saving comes from your head. Paying yourself is just smart.

The US government has provided an avenue for you to become financially comfortable forever--that's with a Roth IRA. An IRA is an Individual Retirement Account, and the key to its success is to start saving very early in life. If you don't know what a Roth IRA is, learn about it online. I'm going to give you some examples. Currently, you are allowed to save $5500 per year in a Roth IRA, but even if you can only save $2500 per year, and you start when you're 21, and the market does its average thing over the next 49 years, you'll have over $1.5 million--tax free--when you're 70 years old. If, however, you don't start saving until you're 30 years old, you'll have about $1 million and if you're 40 years old when you start, you'll have $475,000, and if you're 50 when you start, you'll have about $125,000. Are you getting the idea? If you don't know about Roth IRAs, learn about them online and start saving as early as possible. It will make you feel financially whole.

And don't forget about the bucket of money that you give away to a cause that's greater than yourself. Generosity is always rewarded. It's the personal quality that somehow magically bounces back to you. The Universe gives to those who give. I wish you all great financial well being and, of course, success with your horses.

Most important, to see how The Dressage Foundation can help you reach your dressage goals, check it out online at www.dressagefoundation.org!

Federation Entry Agreement Effective

By entering a Federation-licensed Competition and signing this entry blank as the Owner, Lessee, Trainer, Manager, Agent, Coach, Driver, Rider, Handler, Vaultor or Longeur and on behalf of myself and my principals, representatives, employees and agents, I agree that I am subject to the Bylaws and Rules of The United States Equestrian Federation, Inc. I will accept as final the decision of the Hearing Committee on any question arising under the Rules, and agree to release and hold harmless the Competition, the Federation, their officials, directors and employees for any action taken under the Rules. I represent that I am eligible to enter and/or participate under the Rules, and every horse I am entering is eligible as entered. I also agree that as a condition of and in consideration of acceptance of entry, the Federation and/or the Competition may use or assign photographs, videos, audios, cable-casts, broadcasts, internet, film, new media or other likenesses of me and my horse taken during the course of the Competition for the promotion, coverage or benefit of the Competition, sport, or the Federation. Those likenesses shall not be used to advertise a product and they may not be used in such a way as to jeopardize a amateur status. I hereby expressly and irrevocably waive and release any rights in connection with such use, including any claim to compensation, invasion of privacy, right of publicity, or to misappropriation. ("Harm").

I AGREE to hold harmless and release the Federation and the Competition from all claims for money damages or otherwise for any Harm to me or my horse and for any Harm of any nature caused by me or my horse to others, even if the Harm arises or results resulted, directly or indirectly, from the negligence of the Federation or the Competition.

I AGREE to expressly assume all risks of Harm to me or my horse, including Harm resulting from the negligence of the Federation or the Competition.

I AGREE to indemnify (that is, to pay any losses, damages, or costs incurred by) the Federation and the Competition and to hold them harmless with respect to claims for Harm to me or my horse, and for claims made by others for any Harm caused by me or my horse while at the Competition. I have read the Federation Rules about protective equipment, including GR801 and if applicable, EV114, and I understand that I am entitled to wear protective equipment without penalty, and I acknowledge that the Federation strongly encourages me to do so while WARNING that no protective equipment can guard against all injuries. Iowa's Horse Industry Raising Iowa's Standards

Creating more than 2,100 jobs and generating more than $125 million in revenue for the state, the economic impact of Iowa's horse industry runs deep. By supporting major programs across the state, our work creates a brighter future for breeders, farmers, veterinarians — and every person that calls Iowa their home.

We're proud to be partners with Prairie Meadows, an institution that shares our Iowa-bred passion.
Congratulations on 25 years of excellence.

RE: 2014 Sponsorship Opportunities Iowa Dressage Classics I & II – USDF/USEF Recognized Dressage Show June 14-15, 2014 - Maffitt
Lake Equestrian Center – Cumming, IA

On behalf of the Iowa Dressage & Combined Training Association, I am proud to offer you the opportunity to be an active supporter of our organization. For nearly 35 years, IaDCTA has been supporting and promoting the equine sports of dressage and combined training throughout the state of Iowa and across the region. As a nonprofit organization, we rely on the support of our members, donors and sponsors to help us fulfill our mission.

This year we will be offering sponsors the opportunity to support multiple events through a single sponsorship package. On June 14-15, IaDCTA will be hosting the 17th Annual Iowa Dressage Classics I & II USEF/USDF-recognized horse shows. The Classics will be held at the Maffitt Lake Equestrian Center – a beautiful, state-of-the-art equestrian facility – in Cumming, IA. Every year, the number of competitors and spectators at the Classics continues to grow, drawing dressage people from states across the Midwest. Not only is this the result of the very positive feedback received by the shows but it is also evidence that interest in dressage is spreading.

In addition to the Classics, IaDCTA provides dressage and combined training riders more competition opportunities through our IaDCTA-Recognized Show Series, which will culminate this year with the fourth annual IaDCTA Show Series Championship on October 24-26, 2014, at the Iowa Equestrian Center (IEC) in Cedar Rapids, IA. Held for the past two years at the same facility, the championship show combines serious competition with entertainment, bringing in a large crowd of both horse people and the general public. Sponsors are essential to the success of our organization and we certainly appreciate how much past sponsorships have allowed us to expand and improve our events.

In addition to IaDCTA, your sponsorship will also bring great benefit to Wildwood Hills Ranch, a non-profit, youth-development organization in St. Charles, IA that serves Iowa's neediest children. Every year, a percentage of the profits from our events are given to Wildwood to help fund the programs it provides to make a difference in the lives of many children. Please take a few minutes to review the following sponsorship package, which explains the numerous benefits of becoming an IaDCTA sponsor. Not only are we determined to making the Iowa Dressage Classics one of the premier dressage competitions in the region, but we are even more committed to expanding the opportunity for more people to enjoy dressage and eventing. Your support of these goals is vital. Thank you very much for your consideration of this request.

*Regards,
Tammy Lisi*
