GOAL ZERO

Motor Vehicle Enforcement Detail

In Remembrance of Patti Smith Barrett

★ SATURDAY, AUGUST 15, 2026 ★

The Chatham Borough Police Department will be participating in a Goal Zero Motor Vehicle Enforcement Detail in remembrance of Patti Smith Barrett. On this date, law enforcement agencies throughout New Jersey will be proactively enforcing distracted and dangerous driving violations as part of a statewide effort to improve roadway safety and prevent future tragedies.

WHAT IS GOAL ZERO?

Goal Zero is a traffic safety campaign focused on reducing serious motor vehicle crashes, injuries, and fatalities through education, awareness, and high-visibility enforcement. Its mission is simple:

ZERO SERIOUS CRASHES.

ZERO PREVENTABLE INJURIES.

ZERO LIVES LOST.

ENFORCEMENT FOCUS

Distracted driving

Speeding

Aggressive driving

Failure to stop
or yield

Seat belt violations

Impaired driving

This enforcement detail is centered on one number: zero. Zero serious crashes, zero preventable injuries, and zero lives lost. In honoring the memory of Patti Smith Barrett, this effort promotes safety, prevention, and safer choices behind the wheel.

SLOW DOWN. ★ PUT THE PHONE AWAY. ★ STAY ALERT. ★ DRIVE SAFELY.
