

3/03/26

- Officers responded to a residence on Kilburn Rd for an elderly person in need of medical attention. Aided was transported to a local hospital.
- GCFD and GCPD responded to a Kenwood Rd. residence for a malfunctioning fire alarm.
- GCFD and GCPD responded to a Franklin Ave business for an automatic alarm set off by steam from a dishwasher opening.
- A resident of Euston Rd reports an instance of Identity Theft involving fraud related to a National Grid payment request to an address he does not own.
- GCFD and GCPD responded to a Russell Rd. residence for an automatic fire alarm because of cooking.
- A resident of Stewart Ave was the victim of Grand Larceny as a result of a wire transfer scam.
- Officers responded to a GCPF to assist a motorist with a misplaced auto; the auto was located.

3/02/26

- A resident responded to GCPD HQ to report a suspected scam received via an email from a brokerage house. A follow-up with the broker revealed it was a scam. The account was locked, and no loss occurred.
- GCFD and GCPD responded to the Library at Adelphi U for an automatic alarm set off by vaping.
- GCFD and GCPD responded to a Franklin Ave business for an automatic alarm set off by vaping.
- GCPD Officers were present at Garden City High School's Hoops for Hope event as a show of support for the participants.
- Officers responded to a GC PF for a misplaced auto, which was located.
- Officers conducted numerous Community Policing events at Houses of Worship throughout the Village as a proactive measure for police presence.
- GCFD and GCPD responded to a Garden St residence for a reported odor of natural gas inside the home.

3/01/26

- Officers responded to Herricks Rd and Rockaway for a water main break. NCPD was also at the scene. Nassau County DPW notified by NCPD.
- Officers responded to a Roosevelt St residence for a suspicious noise, determined to be animals in the backyard.
- GCPD assisted NCPD with traffic control during the annual St. Patrick's Day Parade. The event was completed without incident.
- GCFD and GCPD responded to a Greenridge Ave residence for an automatic fire alarm that went off due to a system malfunction.
- Officers responded to a Brook St residence for a lost dog. The animal was returned to its owner by a neighbor.
- A 26-year-old undomiciled male was arrested for Criminal Contempt after he violated an Order of Protection.

2/28/26

- Officers conducted Community Policing – House of Worship events throughout the day in a concerted effort to be visible. All such events were completed without incident.
- Officers responded to a dispute between motorists; however, upon arrival, neither party wanted to reveal their names or details and left the area.
- GCFD and GCPD responded to a Roxbury Rd residence for an automatic fire alarm triggered by a blow dryer.
- Officers were present at the County Executive Building on Franklin Ave for a "No War in Iran" protest attended by 40 protestors. The event was completed without incident.
- GCFD and GCPD responded to a Franklin Ave business for an automatic fire alarm determined to be set off due to construction.
- Officers responded to a 3rd Place residence for the report of an Attempted Larceny of a snowblower. The homeowner was alerted by home video surveillance. The subject walked the unit to the street but then left on a bicycle. GCDD investigating.

2/27/26

- A Traffic Unit Officer stopped a Washington Ave motorist for having a suspended registration. Further investigation revealed multiple other violations, resulting in the vehicle's impoundment.

- Officers responded to North Ave and Brompton Rd for youths running through the yard. The youths were Gone on Arrival (GOA), and no further was requested.
- A Franklin Ct resident reported receiving threatening text messages, which he wanted documented for information purposes only.
- A Willow St resident reported a Vehicle Entry of his parked vehicle during overnight hours. There was no reported loss.
- A Franklin Ave business reported the theft of merchandise. The subject was not at the location upon police arrival. The video was unclear, and the Store Manager declined prosecution.

2/26/26

- Officers responded to a local medical facility for a Missing Person report. Upon arrival, it was observed that NCPD was on scene with the Missing Person, who had already been reported as a high-risk Missing Person from the 3rd Pct.
- GCFD and GCPD responded to the Historical Society building on 11th St for an automatic fire alarm that was false in nature.
- A Maple St resident responded to GCPD HQ to report a Petit Larceny of gift cards that were placed in the 6th St mailbox. The cards were not received; the victim went to the store where they were purchased and confirmed that the gift card's funds had been depleted.
- GCFD and GCPD responded to a 7th St business for an automatic alarm caused by a system test.
- A Kilburn Rd resident was the victim of Identity Theft when cash was discovered missing from an account. Bank fraud investigators advised that an in-person fraud occurred at a NY branch a day earlier.

2/25/26

- GCFD and GCPD responded to Adelphi University for an automatic fire alarm caused by burning food.
- GCFD and GCPD responded to a Wyatt Rd residence for an automatic fire alarm caused by cooking.
- Officers took a Stolen Identity report from a resident at a Cathedral Ave House of Worship.
- GCFD and GCPD responded to an Old Country Rd office building for an automatic fire alarm caused by cooking.
- GCFD and GCPD responded to a 7th St business for an automatic fire alarm caused by an overheated rag in a dryer.