

2/24/26

- Officers responded to a 7th St location regarding a fare dispute, which was resolved upon arrival.
- GCFD and GCPD responded to a residence on Jefferson St. regarding a possible transformer issue.
- GCFD and GCPD responded to a Huntington Rd residence for an automatic fire alarm determined to be caused by steam from cooking.
- Officers responded to a Commercial Ave business for a report of fraud. Investigation continues.
- Officers responded to numerous complaints of noise and parking conditions related to snow removal.

2/23/26

- Officers responded to reports of tree limbs down due to the storm.
- Officers responded to a few parking complaints during the storm.
- GCFD, GCPD, and Nassau County Fire Marshall responded to an Old Country Rd building for a CO Alarm. The condition was corrected.

2/22/26

- GCFD and GCPD responded to a Franklin Ave business for an automatic alarm. Investigation revealed there was a minor kitchen fire that was extinguished. GCFD deemed safe for occupancy.
- Officers responded to Franklin and 12th St for an Uber Fare Dispute, wherein it is alleged that the passenger did threaten that he had a gun. Investigation revealed he did not have a gun, and the Uber driver did not wish to pursue a Harassment complaint.
- A Domestic Incident ended with the arrest of a 20-year-old male from Garden City for Harassment.
- GCFD and GCPD responded to a Suffolk Lane residence for an automatic alarm for smoke coming from a light switch. FD determined that the smoke was from an overheated electrical switch. Power was isolated and shut off.
- GCFD and GCPD responded to a Stratford Ave. residence for an automatic alarm that appeared to have been set off due to burning food.

2/21/26

- Officers responded to speeding autos on Boylston. Vehicles were Gone on Arrival (GOA).
- Officers responded to a report of a Suspicious Person knocking on a Brixton Rd door. Investigation revealed the person was returning a dog to a friend and mistakenly knocked on the wrong door.
- GCFD and GCPD responded to a Franklin Ave business for an automatic alarm that appeared to have been set off due to aerosol spray in a bathroom.
- GCFD and GCPD responded to a Huntington Rd residence for an automatic alarm that appeared to have been set off due to steam from a shower.
- Officers responded to a report of an unknown male inside a garage on Locust St. Investigation revealed it was a delivery person with the authority to be there.
- Officers responded to a Brompton Rd residence when a homeowner returned to find a door ajar. Investigation revealed the home secure.

2/20/26

- GCFD and GCPD, plus multiple other departments, assisted with a working house fire at a Stewart Ave residence. No injuries reported.
- A Damson St resident was the victim of Identity Theft when checks mailed were washed, altered, and cashed. Investigation continues.
- GCFD and GCPD responded to an Adelphi U building for a smoke detector activation. Alarm was determined to malfunction.
- Officers responded to a 3rd St residence after a homeowner returned home and suspected someone may be inside. The interior and exterior were deemed secure, and nothing appeared out of place.

2/19/26

- A Sackville Rd. resident was the victim of Identity Theft when checks mailed were washed, altered, and cashed. Investigation continues.
- GCFD and GCPD responded to a residence on Manor Rd regarding an unknown odor. It was determined that the odor was from the furnace turning on.

- GCFD and GCPD responded to a Wellington Rd residence for an automatic alarm. It was determined to be caused by a hair dryer.
- Officers responded to a Franklin Ave business for threats received by a client. The complainant requested documentation for report purposes only.
- A Kensington Rd. resident was the victim of Identity Theft when checks mailed were washed, altered, and cashed. Investigation continues.
- A Garden St resident was the victim of Identity Theft when checks mailed were washed, altered, and cashed. Investigation continues.
- Officers responded to a Garden St. residence regarding a suspicious person knocking on the front door. Investigation revealed the person was at the wrong address due to a very similar location nearby. The person provided the paperwork, which helped clarify the confusion.

2/18/26

- An employee of a Railroad Ave business started his car to warm it up, went back inside the business, and, upon returning, found the car had been stolen. The car was found two days later, by the Owner, as it pulled into 7-11 in GC Park.
- A Euston Rd. resident was the victim of Identity Theft when checks mailed were washed, altered, and cashed. Investigation continues.
- A Jefferson St. resident was the victim of Identity Theft when an EBT card was illegally used for an online purchase. Investigation continues.
- A Hilton Ave. resident was the victim of Identity Theft when checks mailed were altered and attempted to be cashed. The attempt was flagged by the bank, so there was no monetary loss.
- GCFD and GCPD responded to the Adelphi U Sports Complex for an automatic alarm. The alarm was due to burnt food.