

1/02

A package was reported stolen from the front stoop of a Nassau Boulevard residence.

1/04

Officers located and arrested a 40-year-old suspect on 7th Street after he stole multiple items from CVS.

Several unauthorized withdrawals totaling $8,000 were reportedly made against a victim's bank account.

GCFD and GCPD responded to a residence for a sparking dryer. Firefighters rendered the area safe.

A motorist on Hilton Avenue was charged with unlicensed operation and passing a Stop sign.

1/05

A vehicle reportedly left the scene after being in a collision with another vehicle on Stewart Avenue.

A motorist on New Hyde Park Road was charged with driving with a suspended license and speeding in a school zone.

A motorist on Stewart Avenue and Brompton Road was charged with reckless driving.

1/06

A witness observed a male subject enter a vehicle on Magnolia Street and remove property. Officers searched the area with negative results.

A person staying at the Residence Inn reports she discovered money was missing from her room's safe.

Officers are investigating multiple reports of suspicious persons walking up and down a St. Paul's Place driveway.

Two truck drivers on Clinton Road were charged with driving with suspended licenses and equipment violations.

A person's identity was stolen and used to change her address on her online financial accounts.

1/07

A 43-year-old male was arrested for pushing and shoving a Garden City Hotel female employee. He was charged with harassment.

A white sedan reportedly left the scene after colliding into an unoccupied vehicle in Parking Field 7N.

A motorist on Clinton Road was charged with multiple aggressive driving violations.

1/08

A 46-year-old male was arrested on Franklin Avenue for DWI and excessive speed.

A motorist on Old Country Road was charged with driving with a suspended registration and equipment violations.

A motorist on Clinton Road and St. James Street South was charged with unlicensed operation and improper turn.

The Department investigated two reports of persons receiving suspicious and possible criminal text messages.

1/09

A victim was warming up his vehicle on Jefferson Street at approximately 6 AM when two male subjects wearing grey hooded sweatshirts and sweatpants entered the vehicle, removed property, and fled the scene in a white four door sedan.

A subject was seen on surveillance cameras checking car door handles on Osborne Road and fleeing the scene in a white sedan.

Someone removed property from a vehicle on Carteret Place after breaking the rear window to gain entry.

While patrolling the St. Paul's complex, an Officer discovered graffiti on a brick pillar at the Stewart Avenue entrance.

A motorist on Clinton Road was charged with driving with a suspended license and passing a red traffic light.

A motorist on St. James Street North was charged with driving with a suspended license and passing a Stop sign.

The Department is investigating a report of fraudulent activity against a victim's Coinbase account.

The Department is investigating the possible tampering of a Franklin Avenue UPS drop off box by two male subjects.

1/10

A Garden City organization reports fraudulent checks were cashed against their bank account for a loss of $7,800.

A motorist on Clinton Road was charged with driving with a suspended license and defective equipment.

A victim's identity was stolen and used to open an unauthorized bank account.

A victim received a phone call from whom he thought was a charity he donated to in the past. Per instructions, the victim deposited a check into an unknown account. An Officer investigating the incident determined it was a scam and assisted the victim in cancelling the check before it could be cashed.

A vehicle reportedly left the scene after colliding into an unoccupied vehicle parked in Garden City Plaza.

GCPD and GCFD responded to a residence for a natural gas odor. Firefighters determined gas levels in the home were high due to a burner issue. They rendered the burner safe and ventilated the home.

GCFD and GCPD responded to a residence for a fire alarm. Upon arrival, Firefighters extinguished a minor oven fire.