

Hearts Apart

Sue Westerberg delivered 90 Gift Cards with a value of $465 and $200 worth of Gift Baskets to Joint Base Mcguire. Unfortunately, because of the lock-down at the base, our members could not attend this year.

WCC has supported Hearts Apart since 2014 when Kathy Jani, Janice Altieri and Sue Westerberg gave attendees chocolate hearts from David Bradley.

"The McGuire Hearts Apart program is designed to provide information, resources and support to ease stress when a military member is away from home station due to an unaccompanied remote tour, extended TDY or deployment," said Master Sgt. Stephanie Schultz, 305th Air Mobility Wing family readiness NCO. "If the deployed member knows we are taking care of his or her family while they're away, they can concentrate on the mission and get the job done."
