Marsha Travis displayed artifacts from the Woman's Club of Cranbury's history at our booth at the First Annual Cranbury Colonial Fair. She shared our early history as the Ladies Reading Circle and our support of Women's and Children's charities today. Visitors enjoyed her stories of our work during WWII and our support of Joint Base MDL today.

The plaque is dark with white text. At the top, it says "1713 East Jersey Cottage". The main text describes the history of the land, mentioning the Leni Lenape, the Proprietors of the Province of East New Jersey, and the Fullerton family. It also mentions the Bodine family and the Fullerton family's role in saving the cottage from demolition. At the bottom, it mentions the grant funding for the marker.

At this event, the 1713 East Jersey Cottage was dedicated in Millstone Park. There was a Color Guard and remarks from Senator Linda R. Greenstein.

A group of people in colonial attire are performing music outdoors. They are standing in a line, playing drums and other instruments. There is a blue tent in the background and a large tree in the foreground.
