\[G\quad C\quad G\quad Am\]

(1) Climbing up the Matterhorn, all alone as I could be, I reached the top, I forced to stop and heard this mystic melody. (To Chorus)

\[G\quad C\quad G\quad Am\]

(2) On an island in the ocean, not a human soul around, as I searched for bread and water, once again I heard this sound. (To Chorus)

\[G\quad C\quad G\quad Am\]

(3) My plane had all its motors gone. The wings would never keep me up. I heard a voice that seemed to say,'Now, let's take it from the top'. (To Chorus)

\[G\quad C\quad G\quad Am\]

(4) I was tramping through the Congo when the Mau-Mau tribe appeared. And their native chant was haunting, just the sound that I had feared. (To Chorus)

\[G\quad C\quad G\quad Am\]

(5) While rocketing one day in space, I found myself upon the moon, an ectoplasm greeted me with, 'Have you heard the latest tune?' (To Chorus)

\[G\quad C\quad G\quad Am\]

(6) My ship was sinking in the water, so I sent an SOS. And I waited for an answer, you don't even have to guess. Came a voice so calm and cheerful, just as cheerful as can be, said, 'According to our survey, now the song is number three!' (To Chorus - 2x)
