

Silver Wings

Merle Haggard

(Michelle Singing)

A Bm E7
Silver wings shining in the sunlight, Roaring engines headed somewhere in flight

A Bm E7 A
They're taking you away, and leaving me lonely, Silver wings slowly fading out of sight

Bm E7 A D A
Don't leave me I cry, Don't take that airplane ride

B7 E7
But you locked me out of your mind, Left me standing here behind

A Bm E7
Silver wings shining in the sunlight, Roaring engines headed somewhere in flight

A Bm E7 A
They're taking you away, and leaving me lonely, Silver wings slowly fading out of sight

(Instrumental Break)

A Bm E7
Silver wings shining in the sunlight, Roaring engines headed somewhere in flight

A Bm E7 A
They're taking you away, and leaving me lonely, Silver wings slowly fading out of sight

Slowly fading out of sight.... Slowly fading out of sight
