Help CCC Support Refugees as they rebuild their lives

Our program focus for the month of June is Refugee Resettlement. Refugees come to the United States with great needs and CCC helps these individuals & families work towards stability as they begin life in a new country. We resettle refugees in Greater Richmond, Roanoke, and Newport News. Resettlement includes initial housing placement, case management, school enrollment & follow-up, health & language support, and education & employment services. This month, we challenge you to learn more about the Refugee Resettlement Program, to get involved, and to give back. There are many ways to help - for more information, please visit www.ccofva.org/resettlement-services.

Housekeeping Position available for Shepherd of the Hills starting in August. Involves cleaning of the Church and Hall for a total of four cleanings per month. Eight hours per cleaning.
