Vocations - "If he listens to you, you have won over your brother." (Matthew 18:15)
Jesus calls us to reconciliation, guiding us to bring peace and healing into the lives of others. Every vocation is an invitation to embody His love and forgiveness. How might God be calling you to share His peace in your life? If you feel God is stirring a holy desire for the priesthood or consecrated life, talk to your priest or reach out to the Vocation Office at 804-359-5661 or via email: vocations@richmonddiocese.org

Coffee and Refreshments - Please join us for coffee and refreshments after Mass every Sunday. It is a great way to get to know your fellow parishioners.

Weekly Bible Study with Fr. Dan Hesko meets in the parish hall on Tuesday mornings at 10:30. Also, anyone who can’t make the morning sessions can watch them on YouTube

Religious Education - Registration for Religious Education classes (K -12, and sacrament preparation for First Communion and Confirmation) for the 2026-27 school year is now open. Forms can be found on the table in the back of the church. Also we are still in need of a Director of Religious Education and classroom teachers (depending on need & numbers) and substitutes. If you have any questions or would like more information please see Jean Balich after Mass or email her at balijejan3@gmail.com.

Saturday Vigil Mass will be returning, to be held on the 1st and 3rd Saturday of the month at 5:00 pm.

Feast of Our Lady of Sorrows Mass on September 15 at 5pm. It is for the intentions of "All Grieving Parents" Our Lady of Sorrows is the patron saint of The Emmaus Ministry for Grieving Parents (www.emfgp.org). Its mission is to serve the spiritual needs of grieving parents whose children of any age have died by any cause. There will be Masses said all over the country on September 15 and throughout September for these intentions. All are welcome to attend this Mass.

Protect Virginia 2026 - This fall, Virginians will vote on the Virginia Right to Reproductive Freedom Amendment (Ballot Question 1). If this extreme amendment passes, it will enshrine virtually unlimited and unregulated abortion – at any time during pregnancy – in the state constitution. In his recent pastoral letter, Bishop Knestout calls upon the people of the diocese to vote “No” on this amendment: “Let us renew our commitment to support women in crisis, to protect the innocent, and to defend the vulnerable. We must choose life.” As early voting begins on Friday, Sept. 18, please take time to review the resources and information found at ProtectVirginia2026.org. Please pick up a copy of this notification and a letter from the Virginia Bishops in the Foyer.

Yard Sale - Ladies and Gentlemen! It's that time of year to clean out your closets and wherever you store your stuff and donate to our annual Shepherd of the Hills Yard Sale scheduled for Saturday, September 26th from 8:00 am to 3:00 pm! More importantly, WE NEED YOU to help accept, sort, price, and place these treasures out for the public to enjoy! The hours are as follows: Monday through Thursday (9/21-24) 10:00-3:00, Wednesday evening 6-8 (after 5pm Mass) - Friday 10-3There will be a signup sheet in the Narthex/foyer Thank you, in advance, for your help! SPREAD THE WORD! Any questions, please contact Cooky Bonneville 410-218-6809

Pilgrimage - In honor of the 250th anniversary of our Nation, Bishop Knestout invites the faithful of the Catholic Diocese of Richmond to spend the day at the Basilica of the National Shrine of the Immaculate Conception. On Saturday, October 24, 2026, we will entrust the care of our country to the maternal care of Our Lady, Patroness of the Americas. The Diocese is organizing a bus to leave from Incarnation.
