Introduction

For decades small and medium size businesses in BC and Canada account for 98% of the economy, and although the rate of Indigenous small business growth is fast (15.6% between 2006-2011), in 2017 Indigenous small businesses still only accounted only for 1.4% of all small and medium size enterprises in Canada¹. Research has identified that a key bottleneck to Indigenous business success is access to funding, almost half (45%) have difficulty accessing loans, and only 30% have business plans². As a result, the NTVS has included supporting small business development as a strategic objective to support Nisga'a citizens to realize their self-determined goals and well-being.

This Guide is intended to outline the NTVS Business Development Programs and Services offered for eligible Nisga'a citizens. The information contained in this Guide is drawn from NTVS policies, which are subject to periodic review and amendment by the NTVS that are intended to support improving the well-being of Nisga'a citizens. Nothing in this policy Guide shall impose any legal obligation on the NTVS. Funding and or services under this policy Guide is subject to availability and is discretionary.

Business Development Program Objectives

The objectives of the Business Development Program are to provide Nisga'a citizen business development supports that include:

1. Supporting the well-being of Nisga'a citizens through providing small business development resources (e.g., access to business plan templates, financial projection templates, computers to conduct and develop their business plans, and participate in Small Business Development Workshops),
2. Supporting Nisga'a citizens business development success through small business grants to start a business, or

3. Support for Nisga'a citizens to access business expertise to grow their businesses.

The NTVS intent is to establish this program guide, policies, and procedures to support fair and equitable small business development resources and support for Nisga'a citizens, within available funding and budgets. The NTVS has prioritized small business development and every effort will be made to support Nisga'a citizens, however funding may change that affects NTVS budgets. If budgets do change that impact small business development resources and supports updates will be provided to the Nisga'a citizens, with as much notice as possible.

Program Description

The NTVS Business Development Program provides the following resources and supports within the limits of NTVS available resources (human, financial, other). This includes, but is not limited to services and financial support up to $5,000 for:

1. Business Planning: Support to develop a business plan with the support of a qualified business consultant (see also eligible business planning contributions available from ACC's that may be applied for).
2. New Businesses: Small business grants, upon approval of a viable business plan, that may or may not include funding from other Indigenous business development funding, grants, and loans, and
3. Business Growth: Small business grants that support business expansion, growth, or capacity building, upon approval of a viable business plan (including financial forecasts), or upon approval of a concept paper and budget for business plan development requests. Business growth or expansion costs may include equipment costs, or business consulting services to improve business operations).

Applicants over the age of 29 must provide 10% cash equity, youth (19-29, unless approved by the ED/CEO) will contribute no less than 5% cash equity, and Nisga'a owned corporations, partnerships, must provide 20% equity.

Grants may not be used for costs for equipment or services purchased prior to signing a written contribution agreement, e.g., salaries, wages, shareholder payments, inventory, goodwill, or land acquisitions. For greater clarity please see the NTVS Business Fund Policy.

All contributions will be subject to a legal 'contribution' agreement with applicants required to undertake a specific project within a defined time frame and adhere to specific terms and conditions. Non-compliance would render the contribution to be repayable.

Program Limits

For all Business Development all applicants must adhere to the following programs limits:

- All Nisga'a citizens who wish to apply for Business Development support must apply directly. An advocate may support the applicant to apply for services and support however to protect the personal information of clients the NTVS will not release a client's personal information without having the client provide an approved emergency or advocate contact.
- All applicants must have exhausted and disclosed all supports provided to them to ensure that any identified gaps are met, there is no duplication of services, and referrals for any known additional supports can be provided to maximize the well-being of Nisga'a citizens. This includes applying for Indigenous business programs, which may be combined from the following:
 - Nisga'a Village Governments
 - Community Futures
 - Business Equity Funds (e.g., New Relationship Trust)
 - Aboriginal Capital Corporations, or ACC's (e.g., Tale'awtxw Aboriginal Capital Corporation or All Nations Trust) Business Plan Development, First Citizens Equity Match Grant, or other ACC contributions, or
